2016 CONVENTIONS ARE OVER

Well, "Friends, Romans and Countrymen, lend me your ear." The 2016 Conventions are over and here we are. Where are we? On one hand everyone expected the RNC to put on a Trump style extravaganza the likes of which could not be compared. Instead it was tamer with family being at the core making you wonder how on earth he had the children he ended up with...There must be something we do not know about him. The DNC was a Hollywood star studied gala either performing or on camera sitting with the delegations, howbeit a Bernie Sanders staring emotionless, yet readable, as Hillary accepted her run for president. Both conventions had some cheers and boos, and both clearly stated their views to a degree. I know for example who is pro-life, for keeping second amendment rights and conservative Supreme Court Justices and feels that all life matters not just black life or life outside of the womb etc. Both were scripted and pretty much stuck to their prospectus. The media, however, has picked its same candidate year in, year out.

Trump calls them like he sees them in some jaw dropping off script and uncensored labeling until you find yourself telling him to "Shut up!" even though he keeps right on going. Hillary is a walking script and it is only in emails that the name calling flies and you know who she really is.

Trump says he can make America great again and Hillary says it's already there just needs a nip and tuck. I was amazed how they brought to the forefront that Hillary was so "kid" conscious whether for their healthcare in life or death; they did not mention the death part, however.

Since my voting age I have never had such difficulty. But I know also that to abstain is actually a vote against some very crucial things that concern me. So I will vote for a president and keep my eyes opened even though I am tempted to close them so I am not a witness to the act.

If, like me, you have some very crucial things that are compelling you, you need to make your vote known instead of yelling at the TV.

UNHOLY TRINITY

We human beings are not good at casting the three main characters in our lives.

We:

- Deitize man
- Humanize God
- Fear satan

You might remember this line from Gen 3:5 ...ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. Knowing good and evil is not discerning the difference between the two but making a decision as to what is good or evil in our own eyes as gods. Here satan is deitizing man into a false image from which we humanize God and create him after our likeness. Instead of God speaking through us, our feelings, emotions and beliefs dictate God's voice. We are no longer created in God's image but He is created in ours. God is only as good as our imagination can reach and no further. What we think He thinks, and what we feel He feels, so naturally in any given situation He is on our side...right? The only difference between man now and man in the Old Testament days is we no longer carve Him out of wood or precious metals. (Well, that is not necessarily true either.)

To top it all off we fear the wrong entity: Eccl 12:13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear (revere)

God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

We fear a defeated foe whose end is already written and will be accomplished. To revere is to be in awe of someone or something. We revere satan when we give more credit to what we believe satan can do and how little power God has to heal it.

It is time to do a major recast and start by casting satan out of the trinity.

DEAD BEFORE WE DIE

The title is something God gave me as I prayed for the discouraged in heart. It is true that we should not be dead before we die. He has given us His promise: Jer 29:11 For I know the thought (machāshâbâh machāshebeth: intention, purpose and plan) that I think (chāshab: invent, impute) toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

Notice that I underlined “that I think, invent and purpose” says God. This is not what we have purposed but what the Lord has purposed. We have a destiny to fulfill that is not our own making but a divine providence. What the Lord has designed for our lives and the promises spoken in His Word are and will be accomplished unless through exasperation we get discouraged, frustrated, impatient and sabotage His plans for us. In other words, Jesus is the author and finisher of the story God created with each individual in mind. Our story should never finish with THE END, but with “Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.” (Matt 25:21)

If there were chairs marked enthusiasm, excitement, miracles, prosperity and endurance, which of the chairs would be taken? I can tell you that all would clamber for the first four and no one would rush toward endurance. Yet, it is endurance that leads us to the rest of them. Endurance in the Bible refers to continuing in our Christian commitment in the face of difficulty. It is born in the context of trials, hostility and persecution as disciples of Christ in a world that is at enmity against God’s children.

Are you dead before you die? Have you been waiting for what seems an eternity for a particular outcome? Has frustration and impatience lead to discouragement to the point of calling it quits on your dreams and vision?

Then let me admonish you with these two Scriptures: Heb 10:35-36 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. 36 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. Hab 2:3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

“But, what is the Will of the Father?” you ask. Jesus said it right here: Matt 4:4 It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Rom 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

God never gives us a vision that He cannot perform or that He forgets about. He gets everything in position to move on the plans that He has created for us and it is not late in coming. We occupy in life growing in His Word and Will until He says NOW GO. We are not the time keepers of the seasons of God. He alone holds all time in His hands.

God gave me a vision back in the 70’s that I have yet to see fully, but He also gave me Hab 2:2-3...Verse three I gave you but here is verse 2: Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

This is the part I am doing while I occupy until the rest of the vision comes into view and I get the GO AHEAD.

I am not dead before I die nor am I anxious about the fulfillment of what the Lord has given me to do. He is a Speaking Spirit and my ear has learned His voice. I am not waiting for Him but waiting on Him until then. I ask you to live in God’s Will and Word in active pursuit of God’s Kingdom.

“IT”: OUR GREATEST FEAR

Luke 21:26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

Notice in the opening Scripture that the fear spoken here is a foreboding of things that have not yet occurred but an unknown terror just on the horizon that is expected to come. We hear of calamities and know “we ain’t seen nothin’ yet!” We just know that “IT” is around the corner. Sometimes the fear of what could happen is worse than the happening itself.

Preachers are ushering “IT” in by their renditions of “Revelation Now” sermons while we watch the powers that be on this earth do what is unpredictably crazy as if everyone has gotten hold of some bad juju!

Our minds invent the unseen terror on its way. We wonder where sanity hid itself as our five senses pick up the scent of terror in the news of the day as it plays over and over night and day.

We worry about an election that many do not believe will happen because of “IT”. We know the lesson of the ant who stores up his food for the hard winter months, so we store in preparation of “IT”. “IT” consumes our every thought, even when we are not thinking of “IT”. “IT” has begun to paralyze us. How far do we want to be away from the safety of our home when “IT” strikes.

Notice that men’s heart are not failing because “IT” struck but because of the mere fear of “IT” striking. “There is nothing to fear but fear itself” rings true in Luke 21:26. Status quo will be interrupted by unusual events making fears grow in intensity.

Do you realize that “ITs” name is FEAR. FEAR capitalizes upon moments taking captive the imagination of mankind.

Matt 24:6 And ye shall HEAR of wars and RUMOURS of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

To hear of wars and rumors of war is not being at war. A rumor is defined as an unverified, circulating speculation. Though events in the world of destructive weather and waves are a reality, fear is not based on reality but on what could be. Fear is an emotion based upon a dangerous even paralyzing belief of something that has not happened.

2 Tim 1:7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Fear may start as an emotion but when fear takes up residence it is a spirit robbing us of our God given power, love and a sound mind. Fear is ever creeping into our thoughts to take us off course if we will yield our faith to “IT”.

I know with the passing of time and the signs in this season are all around us, but our lives should be centered on Jesus. I am not negating the watch or preparation but promoting good Scriptural health as our answer in these troubled times. Be aware of the times and prepare as God shows you, but do not let fear of these things mount up against your faith.

PROPHECY: LION AND THE EAGLE

In a June's issue of Trumpet Sounds I wrote about the prophecy in Daniel 7:4 The first was like a lion (Great Britain), and had eagle's wings (U.S.): I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

To recap I wrote that the eagle's wings being plucked was the U.S. Declaration of Independence from Great Britain. We were able to stand on our own as a nation with the heart of Christianity.

Great Britain and the United States have had an umbilical cord connection as we were birthed out of her. Though we have been a melting pot of immigrants from other countries, our common language is English like our roots. The UK and the US speak the same language in more ways than one.

Recently, through a friend, I became aware of a prophetic word given on Elijah List by Charles Shamp co-founder of Destiny Encounters with wife Brynn. Here is what he writes: "I believe Great Britain and America are on a prophetic timeline that is leading to a massive outpouring of the Spirit once again. ...All the signs are lighting the way and the recent developments only make the picture become clearer that revival is near!"

The vision he was given concerned the United Kingdom and America. It was a vision of revival, awakening and freedom first coming to the U.K. and its result would spill into America.

Words Over the UK and America:

"The Lion must roar before the Eagle can fly!" Charles was shown in a vision a lion and an eagle. He saw that as the lion roared; the eagle took flight. The lion spoke of Great Britain and the roar of the Lord over the land - a roar of freedom and revival. The eagle taking flight spoke of America and her receiving freedom and awakening as a result of what would take place in Great Britain.

Charles also states: "I also believe that this word was tied into the re- cent vote for Great Britain to leave the European Union and is a direct fulfillment of this prophetic word spoken last year. It is a trigger point in the natural for what God is doing spiritually for the United Kingdom... All the signs are lighting the way and the recent developments only make the picture become more clear that revival is near! When we study out the history of revival in the earth over the past several centuries, we can almost single handedly point to the United Kingdom as a major hot spot and catalyst for what the Holy Spirit was doing at that time. Almost every major shift of reformation or revival started on these Island Nations."

I like that news and I place my prayer of agreement by saying AMEN!

NEGOTIATING A SETTLEMENT

Rom 8:26-28 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. 28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Making intercession for the saints is the word entungchanoo, which signifies to apply oneself on behalf of another; to intercede or negotiate a settlement in their favor. This is playing the reverse card upon the enemy's intent and turning it for a good outcome. It goes along with Jere 29:11 that says God's plans for us are for good and not evil for an expected outcome.

Every circumstance and situation that the enemy meant for evil will turn for our good for an expected outcome fitting God's divine purpose for His children. Therefore, no weapon formed against us can prosper and no tongue rising against us can either.

Denny and I can testify to these Truths in our personal lives. Gen 50:20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

God does not make bad things happen just so He can turn it around. We have an enemy that roams to and fro seeking whom he may devour. The enemy has an appetite for evil, but God's intervention has taken away the teeth of the lion, so he merely gums you a little, while you possess the Sword of the Spirit to finish the job and see victory.

We need to see that every disaster heading our way from the enemy's camp is an opportunity for promotion in our favor.

We may not know how to pray as we ought so the Spirit takes over where we leave off.

With Jesus in heaven ever making intercession for the saints, and the Holy Spirit of God on earth intervening by negotiating a settlement for us, how can we lose? We would have to take the situation out of their hands and handle it ourselves to screw it up!

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

To the left is a picture of today's language; we call it communication. You can see how this family spends time together communicating. I bet anything if you ask each of them what they did last night, they would call it "a night with the family". For all of our communications, we have lost touch with one another. Rather than spending time together we are simply in the same room together spending time in technology. What if the Lord said, "Look how they build towers to communicate with their gods. Let us go down and confound their communication systems." (Therefore, the name of it is called Babel.) What would we do if all electricity was confounded? I do not think our minds can comprehend a "Babel experience" and the vulnerability it would represent. One thing that might happen is that we would have to band together in that kind of darkness, which oddly enough could shed a light on and bring us back to an out dated mode of communicating.

SIGNS

Matt 24:12 And because iniquity (lawlessness) shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold (apostasy).

Almost 2000 years ago on the Mount of Olives Jesus prophesied that in the last days that lawlessness would abound and that there would be an apostasy or great falling away. He said this in response to the disciples' question of what sign to look for before His return. The Greek word for iniquity is anomia, which is to say without law or lawless. Lawlessness is a disregard of the law or not restrained or controlled by law. It has been bad enough to hear of the robberies, rapes, riots, assaults and murders that are so numerous that there is not enough space on the news for all of them. Tragically there is a brother, sister, wife, husband and grandparent as a victim of senseless crimes. However, when you see that the officers enforcing the laws are targeted and killed by its citizens we know that we are at the peak of this prophecy. We know that the risk of law enforcers is high due to the job. This has reached beyond the casualties of the job to an all-out war with them as the target.

There is not only a lawlessness in the laws of the land but in our government with Obama at the helm. Sheriff David A. Clarke, also a black democrat from Milwaukee, said that Obama is fueling tensions between African Americans and the police to justify a federal takeover of local law enforcement. Back in March the Obama administration published the Task Force on 21 Century Policing, a plan which advocates the federalization of police agencies across the country by forcing them to adhere to stricter requirements when they receive federal funding.

One of the three mayors chosen to provide input to this Task Force was Baltimore Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake, who gave rioters "space to destroy" property during the Baltimore riots and even told police to stand down.

Now, why would Obama do this? What motives a president to think that giving "space to destroy" to an agitated group while telling law to stand down and allow it as good for public safety? Have you notice that there have been many "control" shifts by the Obama Administration? He is gaining control to do what? Why would a president, who is noted for his eloquent speaking that sways the thinking of many to use impotent, left handed speeches in the most chaotic events? These left handed speeches have fueled even more heat to an already boiling pot. If he is not orchestrating this toward Marshal Law then he is missing his own initiative.

2 Thess 2:8-11 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. 9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10 and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

As you can see this will neither fare well in the end for the "lawless one" nor for the lawless who follow him.

Lawlessness is one of the signs of Jesus' return. Lawless, be warned and the Christian rejoice.

I WILL BE LIKE THE MOST HIGH

Satan has had many names or titles for instance: Abaddon/ Apollyon, Beelzebub, Belial, Lucifer as well as character references: serpent, devil, enemy, accuser, temper/tester, thief, adversary, deceiver, antichrist. Then there are these phrases for Satan: father of lies, god of this world, prince of the power of the air, roaring lion and so on and so forth.

Many have called satan an ethereal from the angelic realm such as archangel. Never is satan referred as such. If you go to an exhaustive concordance or lexicon and type in archangel it appears in only two places 1 Thess 4:16 and Jude 9 and neither is satan. We know that Michael is the name of an archangel. Michael is called a prince and he serves God's children on earth, Dan 10:13-21 and Dan 12:1.

The only reference to satan as "an gel of light" is talking about the transformation (metaschematizo) which is a mere disguise not a reality 2 Cor 11:14.

Now as to the reference of cherub directed at satan we see this: Ezek 28:14-15 Thou art the (1.)anointed (2.)cherub that (3.)covereth; and I have (4.)set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

Cherub is not a created angelic but an appointed position. As you can see by the wording that God set and anointed Lucifer as a cherub that covered. Look at the words under translation:

1. Anointed: mimshach ordain somebody: to install somebody officially or ceremonially in a position or office from the Hebrew root: mâshach to consecrate

2. Cherub: k<sup>r</sup>ûb is the position given (not a creation or creature but a position appointed to a creature or created being) There has never been a clear definition...cherub itself has been a mystery since most Biblical scholars have a mindset that cherub is a created being rather than an appointed position. You will not find the definition in this word however, but must find it in the words around it.

3. Covereth: sâkak sâkak is the description of the position: hedge of defense, protector (as a ruling monarch put in charge) cover put over kingdoms (Matt 4:8-9 tells of Satan having kingdoms as they are offered to Christ in exchange for worship.)

4. Set: nâthan bestow, constitute, grant, permit, ascribe, employ, consecrate, entrust, give over, appoint, assign, issue

One thing satan is very good at is to disguise as Jehovah. I WILL BE LIKE THE MOST HIGH GOD! Yet, nothing could be further from the Truth. God's Kingdom through Jesus is the Way, Truth and Life, while satan has three things to counter: steal, kill and destroy. You see Old Testament man believing that it was God's place to steal, kill and destroy, yet correction came as Jesus revealed the Truth: John 10:10-11 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

We just need to keep the identity of the wolf and the lamb separate.

SATAN'S ACCESS

Job 1:12 ...Behold, all that he hath is in thy power... This is a passage that has been misunderstood for generations. What was God saying to satan? First of all we look at the word "Behold". To behold is to observe something or take notice. God is reminding satan of the obvious. The obvious is that all that Job had was within satan's kingdom to obtain except for one...only upon himself put not forth thine hand. Job did not belong to satan. If you read the article p.4 I Will Be Like the Most High God you find that satan was given kingdoms before this entity fell, and note that Jesus' temptation in the wilderness was offered the kingdoms of the world by satan. Jesus did not counter with, "These are not your kingdoms," but Matt 4:10 Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Satan, like Joseph to the Pharaoh, was vizier/cherub over these kingdoms offered to Jesus.

Next notice that God says "all that he HATH is in thy power". What HATH Job? Job was a

BYE, POLAR!

Have you noticed that crazy is not just something that happens when the moon is full? No matter who we are in God's Kingdom, crazy tries its best to run through our families taking captive our children or their spouses with the purpose of sifting and wearing us out. I woke up this morning ready to jump off the crazy train and tear up my boarding pass. No more Mrs. Nice Gal...the gloves are off. After all, what good is authority if we do not use it?

Crazy masks itself in the face of those being duped and used by the enemy. Satan uses them until they are plum used up in the gutter of despair. Well, this ends today! I am declaring war by saying, "Bye, Polar, get you to the dry and dark places that Jesus spoke! Your five minutes are up!" It is not enough to pray for God to take this thorn wealthy man in all areas. Satan had to look for a chink in Job's hedge for access.

From Job's own mouth we find that satan used fear to get Job to move him from his trust in God and hedge of protection giving birth to an unruly tongue calling those things that are not into being: Job 3:25-26 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me. 26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

We know from the dialog in the first chapter of Job that satan's complaint was getting through that hedge God had around him. The Scriptures do not tell us how long it took for the hedge to be compromised through the attack of fear, but compromised it was. (Let me insert this analogy: I cannot open a tightly closed jar but I can tap the lid and a few other tricks to open it. Likewise satan cannot crumble a hedge God has put into place, so tricks are initiated when by His Grace He has given us all weaponry in His Word to combat crazy whenever it rears its ugly head.

Matt 12:43 talks about demons roaming in dry places where there is no water. They inhabit dry places seeking habitation. A heart moistened by the washing of the water by the Word is not habitable but if there is a dry area the enemy will spot it and attach itself for the ride until they find habitation. The enemy cannot do anything to anyone without our giving access and we understand this by the Word. James 1:14-15 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. 15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Where there is a temptation ated in order for Job himself to crumble his hedge from within.)

Satan gained access by Job's directions: Job 35:16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge. Even God addressed this in a question to Job: Job 38:2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

Yet in all of the attacks against him Job did not curse God or turn from Him, which was what satan had banked on and the whole purpose of the attack, Job 1:11.

This is no different than what satan did to Cain, which God warned: Gen 4:7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

With Cain satan used envy. We see the picture of satan crouched at the door of Cain's hedge and we know from the rest of the story that Cain succumbed to there is a tempter, but we make the choice to succumb or resist it.

This is not only personal but nationwide. We need to say "Bye, Polar," to the craziness dividing our nation effecting us all. It is time to stand for something rather than complain about something. Our prayers promote, while our complaints are praise to satan signifying a job well done.

This reminds me of an old black and white movie "The Invasion Of The Body Snatchers". Alien pods (like elongated brussel sprouts) were placed by the sleeping person to absorb their identity and take on their persona yet aliens in a major take over of the earth.

As a kid I checked around my bed every night for a year before going to sleep.

satan's efforts and gained access to him destroying his future.

When we go through temptations or trials of our faith, satan is crouched at the door of our hedge just waiting for our reaction. We can resist the enemy or we can succumb to it through any manner of tricks played, yet all are deceptions to challenge us and cause us to fail.

If you feel that fear, unforgiveness or sin have compromised your hedge, it is time to make repairs by asking forgiveness of any words spoken without knowledge in the process. Immerse yourself in the Word and prayer.

Fear is backward faith and it takes you backward as you think it. Eventually those backward thoughts travel from brain to mouth. Start a new habit of speaking faith. Stop waiting for God to do something more than die for us and leave us His Will and Testament with all the spiritual tools and gifts. We hold the answer.

Fantasy has some truth to it. The enemy is an alien trying to take this planet by planting ideas in our brains that are not our thoughts, yet many times we accept them as ours. In the movie I think they poured kerosene, struck a match and burned them to ashes. We have something better: Luke 10:19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

BYE, POLAR!!!
