

TRUMPET SOUNDS

EDITOR: DENNIS O'CONNOR

JUST A STORY?

There is a simple story of a spider who spun his enormous web in a corn field between stalks of corn. This spider was named Intellect because he believed everything he thought was true. He got fat eating the little bugs that flew into his web, as he thought, "All is right in this cornfield."

One day a little bug got caught in the web. He struggled to free himself but to no avail. All the movement the little bug made got the attention of the spider who woke from his nap to see his next meal. As the spider approached he heard the little bug say, "If you will not eat me, I will give you information that will save your life."

Now the spider was more intrigued by the little bug than hungry.

"What can you tell me, Little Bug, that I do not already know, and how can a little bug like you save my life when all is right with the world?"

The little bug replied in a meek voice, "All is not well for you in the world as you suppose, for harvest is upon this cornfield and soon the Planter of the field will come and gather the corn and you will perish."

The spider laughed to scorn, "There is no such thing as a planter. This cornfield just evolved and has always been here. There is no such thing as a harvest. How can you prove this?"

The little bug responded with a surety, "Look at the design of corn in rows deliberately planted. Only a Planter would have done this, and He is soon to return to gather His harvest."

The spider scoffed and ate the little bug with no remorse at all.

The next morning when the spider awoke, it was a beautiful sunny day without a cloud in the sky. Just as he was about to check his food supply from the night, he saw a huge cloud of dust starting to fill the air and the loud sound of an engine of some kind. "I wonder what that could be," he said to himself.

John 4:35 "...I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest."

2 Peter 3:3-4 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, 4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

As with every story, we come to this:

THE END

DONKEY SMART

What is the biggest problem weighing against your mind right now? Maybe it is the greatest need at the moment or a troubled relationship. It could be that your age has come against you and you cannot seem to do what you could yesterday.

Paul addressed all issues in this manner: Phil 4:11-13 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

The word strengthen is endunamoo meaning to empower: - enable, (increase in) strengthen, be made strong. It comes from the root word dunamis which is ability, abundance, might, miracle, power, strength, mighty work.

Paul is not just saying that he knows how to take pain and suffering, but that he knows the power and ability to overcome all circumstances, therefore, he is not undone by them. Overcoming does not mean we are accepting the situation dealt, but that we are finding our way to the other side through Jesus mighty power and the abilities He gave to us.

Do we treat the problem with our tongue's rehearsals or the Word of God? I can tell you from personal experience the tongue's rehearsal gets us nowhere except to dig the hole deeper.

There is a story of a donkey that fell in a sinkhole. The farmer could not get him out and thought the donkey was surely dead so he proceeded to throw dirt in the hole to bury his donkey. Each time the dirt fell on the donkey's back he shook it under his feet until he was eventually able to climb out.

Do not let trouble bury you. Trust God, shake the dirt under foot and walk out!

WOUNDED FOR OUR TRANSGRESSIONS

The Holy Spirit reveals understanding of things that I have never heard preached. When these unfamiliar things come to me I always think the same thing, “Lord, can this be?” After that thought a flood of Scriptures come as if my mind were a computer just waiting for the right key pushed.

I was either praying with someone or counseling someone who felt wounded by another Christian when I saw in my spirit the wounds on Jesus hands start to throb. I thought to myself that Jesus had already paid the price for our transgressions. Surely He suffered the payment no longer. Can this be? The Scriptures immediately came: Matt 25:40 ...Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Heb 6:6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

I pictured myself inflicting pain by hurting one of God’s children and causing His wounds to throb as if I had done it to Him. But the Scripture that really hurts is to think once we have accepted salvation, forgiveness and deliverance yet tasted of the gifts to then go back to our old ways of hurting the body could crucify Jesus’ heart with grief. Can this be that Christ would be put to an open shame? Then the Scripture in Rev 12:10 followed, which tells us that the enemy accuses God’s children before His throne day and night.

Whenever my children had done something really bad and I was addressed about it, it brought shame not only to my child but I felt the shame as the parent of the child.

Jesus is still paying the price for hurtful words and wounding gossip, but then to hear the enemy say, “Those children you spent your blood to save take it all in vain and care nothing of your sacrifice. You mean nothing to them. Everything you did is for naught!” What come-back does Jesus have when the truth is that we do take Him for granted as anger rules? We do not consider anything but our own feelings.

When we hurt one member of the body we disfigure our own selves, for we are one. We pluck out our own eyes and cut off our own limbs, and Jesus feels it all.

Make this a year of healing all wounds without inflicting more.

STRATEGIC PLANS

I heard a minister say that if you wanted to hear God laugh just tell Him your plans for the future!

Businesses make yearly strategic plans for the future as well as individuals projecting plans on the smaller scale. From large plans to the grocery list of things to pick up for a week’s needs, we are a people who plan. Paul the apostle made plans with this contingency: Heb 6:3 And this will we do, if God permit.

Acts 18:21 ...but I will return again unto you, if God will.

Do you see that everything Paul planned was contingent upon God’s Will and purpose? Where God has the final say in the strategic plans of men there is success. When man fails to seek God hindsight prevails.

In every bankruptcy there was a failure to seek God’s Will. To be bankrupt of wisdom is to be bankrupt in other areas as well. By failing to seek God we fail to foresee the season in knowing the possible pitfalls ahead. Is this a season for large building projects or for holding back? Likewise, when holding back in a season that building would be advantageous misses the opportunities available. This wisdom can only come from God who knows the season and reveals it to those seeking Him just as we see Paul doing.

The Apostle John got an open door to receive future insight: Rev 4:1 After this I (John) looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

Here is a clear invitation by Jesus to receive revelation. Notice the invitation was to come up to God’s plan rather than bring God down to our plan. (This was good revelation from my own pastor.) We are not including God into our plans, but God is inviting us into His. After all, we are here by God’s purpose, and plan. Without this strategic knowledge we are playing Russian roulette with our steps. Trust me when I say that the enemy has a ready bullet for such occasions.

Let me give you just a small example. One of the most careless things we can do is plan to pick something up from this store or that shop etc. We see it as neither Godly nor a divine commission, yet our trip is designed with divine appointments by the Spirit of God. Paul might say it like this: “I am going to the storeth...is there anything you needeth, Lord?” You may not only be shopping for your needs but God’s. He may show you just who you need to bless in word or deed. Nothing we do is without considering God’s planned steps once we remember that ours are all ordered.

I got the confirmation of this article from my pastor who added Rev 4:1 with a perfect fit.

Being open to God’s plan in all we do is the plan for 2015.

IMMOVEABLE/UNSTOPPABLE (Word for 2015)

When thinking of an immoveable object we might think of a mountain, but an earthquake could topple a mountain or split it right in two. What might be an unstoppable force? Not the wind, a tornado or hurricane since they dissipate eventually. What about the sea waves? I think not because of this Scripture: Rev 21:1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

In that one verse we see that immoveable objects and unstoppable forces do not exist in the things of earth. However, the Word of Truth in that Scripture is immoveable, unchangeable as well as unstoppable. The immoveable object and unstoppable force are one in the same pointing in the exact direction as a unified force. They are not opposed to one another but are the same entity. The WORD of God is immoveable, unchangeable and unstoppable. No intellect can out solve it, change it or rewrite it. Man has tried to rewrite or modify Truth but his equations do not figure and still the Word will manifest in the midst of man's intellect, reasoning and ignorance to deny it.

Satan cannot change it and God Himself cannot go against it.

God's Kingdom is immoveable: Heb 12:28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

Mal 3:6 For I am the LORD, I change not...

Mark 13:31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

Prophecy can be the trumpet of warning to change for a better outcome according to the ability for people's hearts to change. Therefore when a prophetic warning comes to a people the outcome is contingent upon their actions which follow. Notice the first word in this prophecy: 2 Chron 7:14 IF my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

The "if" is contingent upon the action of the people to change. The Word is not changed; it is just. The next Scripture invites the fervent prayer of change: 2 Chron 7:15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

Then there are prophecies that give signs to watch such as: Matt 24:15-16 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains:

"When" and "if" are not the same. One prophecy is a warning to change and the other is a sign that is not contingent to man's heart but a set time that is immoveable and unstoppable. Jesus did not tell them to pray against the sign but to watch for it to mark the season and then told them what to pray:

Matt 24:20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

The signs given in Luke 21, Matt 24 and Mark 13 are immoveable and unstoppable. In other words, they will happen as Jesus prophesied. No prayer will stop these things from happening, however, we may pray for strength to overcome all obstacles of the evil and change our own consequences. Ezek 14:20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

Noah, Daniel and Job were in it. What were the elements involved for these three? Noah was in an uncontrollable flood=elements of nature. Daniel was in captivity=elements of persecution. Job was in affliction and war=elements of sifting by Satan. Each of these men faced adversity and overcame it...Noah by preparing, Daniel by his faithfulness and Job by discovering God's identity.

We are entering the time of Luke 21:25-28 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; 26

Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. 27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

These words are immoveable and unstoppable and many watching the signs believe that we are in these times.

If we look at these events to come, we see they involve all the elements imaginable and some beyond our imaginations. Yet we see the key of overcoming in these three:

Noah prepared for the season. Daniel stayed faithful to God in the darkness and Job, though he thought he knew God, through all his suffering found his God in the end and was restored in more than he lost. Each had a testimony, but we have more than the word of our testimony. We also have the blood of Jesus and the mighty power of our inheritance! We have, through Jesus our Christ, the ability to be immoveable of faith and unstoppable of force. We can be dangerous in these days for the enemy or succumb in fear.

You and I are not here by accident. We were planned from before the foundation of the earth for such a time as this. It is time for us to wait upon the LORD who will renew our strength; and mount up with wings as eagles; so that we run yet not weary; and walk but not faint!

I'LL WAIT FOR THE MOVIE

Have you noticed that the general public shake their heads in disbelief of current events, which they discuss at the water cooler or in Wal-Mart, while acknowledging the Biblical implications they avoid like the plague... DON'T GO THERE, as if you scheduled Armageddon tomorrow. They do not want to know or read about it. It is as if they are waiting for it to come out on DVD from Netflix.

All events are scripted (in the Word) for us to have been made aware, but most people want to wait for the movie to come out. What they do not realize is they have a part in the "movie", yet they have not learned their lines.

The curtain is about ready to go up for act 1 BABEL REVISITED "Places everyone!" The director yells, "Can the lights!" The grids are compromised. (This is just a possible scenario.) You may notice that I did not say curtain call. I am not talking Armageddon necessarily or the end of the world. However, if you are not watching the signs and seasons God gave us through His Word then it will come

MIND EMPOWERING

Col 3:10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

Eph 4:23-24 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

The renewed mind radiates as a thief in the night.

The ingredients that compromised the first confounding of communication are no different today. First, as I have written before, we must understand what confound means it was derived from Hebrew and not Webster's English.

בלל balal: - anoint, confound, X fade away, mingle, mix (self), give provender (allowance), temper.

This is not to be mistaken for the word "confusion" of which is part and parcel of the enemy: Hebrew, קלון qalon: disgrace:- confusion, dishonour, ignominy, reproach, shame.

In other words this has nothing to do with scrambled brains. It had to do with communication being impaired as we see reading further in Scripture: Gen 11:9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

Today's communications are in electrical technologies. To another world by working in conjunction with heaven's realities so that they become manifest on this earth. You know...Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Think about that: we, being the Kingdom of God on earth, bring about heaven's realities. Wow, is right! God inspired thoughts taken through portals from heaven to earth.

be confounded would only take a natural or man-made EMP (electromagnetic pulse).

The legislation, SB 1476, was introduced by Sen. David Farnsworth, R-Mesa. It includes the type and quantity of food, water and medical supplies that each person should stockpile in case an EMP occurs over the U.S.

Here is another headliner: SWITZERLAND, Zurich — "Based on breaking news and events, it appears that international intelligence agencies have once again green-lit a Chinese-based nuclear attack on the United States of America. With a recent poll finding that China is now America's top enemy and revelations that a new U.S. versus China cold war is imminent, the pretext for a 'Digital Pearl Harbor' has quietly been established."

While this is no secret, it is exactly as Jesus said it would be...as in the days of Noah.

Those who are waiting for the movie must also figure that the government will surely have a plan. Christians are for the most part unprepared through their Likewise the demonic can inspire evil thoughts as well as evil thoughts inspiring the demonic into manifestation. We see those realities playing out on earth in both good vs. evil.

Unseen realities feed off our thoughts in which we give empowerment. The irony is that the very complaints we have, we have birthed in our ignorance of not renewing escape route of early rapture thinking. I believe there is a rapture at some point, but I am certainly not putting all my eggs in the "earlier than later" basket. I am not waiting for the movie to come out before preparing. Do I have enough to feed you in an emergency? Good question...probably not. Your next thought might be that Jesus multiplied the food and we can too. I agree that this is absolutely possible, however today's Christian finds it hard to believe for a healing let alone in midst of world chaos to multiply food.

I know this is hard to read and you may think I am a terror monger, which is why they probably killed the prophets of old bringing warnings they did not want to hear. I also know that if I keep these things to myself, I become responsible for what happens to you. I have to die to what you might think of me to do what I believe God is calling me to do.

Get into script-yours and find out what the Spirit of God is revealing to our generation. Do not wait for the movie. By then it is too late.

our minds but inspiring the attack of the enemy. God warned Cain of that very thing: Gen 4:6-7 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

The only way for us to maintain a royal priesthood ruling in a great Kingdom is with renewed minds, otherwise we are birthing from a position of captivity with its strongholds.

Evil patterns develop from misplaced trust. We know the slant of the world but the Christian who confesses to trust God has not taken all thoughts into captivity by the Word of Truth. We pit the promises against the evil report our minds rehearse, and more than not our minds fear the worst. Our mouth, in kind, speaks our doubt, which constructs a barrier wall against the promise. We have given no access of heaven's realities to flow on earth for us.

Isa 53:1 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

Worldly minds grasp at the worldly where no miracle lies. Only by the renewed mind can we reach heaven's realities.

Think of your mind as a field plowed and ready to receive seed. Christians spend less hours in church or studying the Word than the many hours of news and secular programming? Catch hold of the word programming. The definition is a plan of action to accomplish a specified end. This is tell-a-vision vs. Godly vision. Hour after hour we spend in comedy with which we should probably not be laughing, adultery, fornication, liberal views etc. Do we spend equal time in the Word or are we to busy in front of television being programmed?

We waste such amazing abilities not only by the interruption of demonic thoughts and reasoning intellects but the lure of desires and other distractions. Those distractions cost us dearly.

We have the same abilities as Jesus and greater, as He put it. We are invited to go into those high places and pull down heavenly resources to earth. The enemy has brainwashed us into ignorance by feeding us distraction after distraction until our minds are a virtual waste can.

God is telling us today to renew our minds in the Word because sin lies crouched at the door with its desire to have us, but we are told to rule over it.

Rom 8:4-6 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. 6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

Make this a year to be weaned off the world's programming and plant the seeds of Life from the Word for accessing the heavenly to manifest it on earth.

Blessings for the New Year
