

TRUMPET SOUNDS

REBECCA O'CONNOR

MAY 2013 ISSUE
EDITOR:
DENNIS O'CONNOR

I WANT TO BE IN THAT NUMBER

"Oh Lord, I want to be in that number when the saints go marching in." We all know this famous gospel hymn, but what we have not known is the lack in that number. If you have seen or heard Rabbi Daniel Lapin lately you may have heard him tell about the discrepancy in our English translation in assuming that all the Jews left Egypt with Moses during the great exodus. He explained that Jewish history bears out that only a mere 20% of the captive Jews in Egypt left with Moses. This means that 80% chose to stay in bondage purely due to their familiarity to bondage and apprehension of the unknown. Even though God gave many signs of His divine protection, the vast majority of Jews did not put their trust in Him. They trusted the flesh pots of Egypt but no trust that God could provide in the wilderness.

This explains what has happened to America. Only 20% of the Christian population is willing to follow the Word of God while the other 80% of church going Christians are not willing to follow faith unless it aids their convenience. The majority of evangelicals voted against their own faith in the last election. If you asked evangelicals if they were for gay marriage, abortion or a secular government which has little to no tolerance for Christian principles they would unequivocally say no, yet when it came to their convenience in other material entitlements they put their hand to it anyway. How do they reconcile what they supported? I know the excuse used was that the other candidate was against gay marriage, abortion and for freedom of religion, but he was a "Mormon". The man was hung by the very religious values our constitution protects. You can understand why the worldly progressives would do that, but when the church does that to itself because of a label, you see a church in trouble.

We know by the prophecies of the Gospel that as time grows short our conveniences grow even shorter. What are we more likely to give up?

Faith can only bend so far before it is replaced by compromise. Compromise is an agreement to settle. It is something accepted rather than wanted. If David had compromised his faith and settled he would have accepted Goliath's words rather than challenging his words in faith. Shadrach Meshach and Abednego would not have faced the fiery furnace since bowing to Nebuchadnezzar was easier. Daniel would not have been in the lion's den if he had just settled. None of these amazing miracles would have been written nor all the converts testifying of God's miraculous power! History would have lost its champions.

*Oh when the saints go marching in
When the saints go marching in
Oh lord I want to be in that number
When the saints go marching in*

END-TIMES UPDATES

Everyone who thought that 2012 was the end of the world, and mocked as the new year came in like any other, never understood what the Mayas, Aztecs or Cherokee [to name a few] predicted. All of these ancient cultures had calendars that rolled over in 2012 predicting 2013 a new era and new dispensation. The Maya, for example, prognosticated that their god Bolon Yokte K'uh would emerge from the underworld where he guards the bones and seed of the Nephilim/giants, who came to earth to reproduce a new birth in humanity [Gen. 6].

Looking at the vast cultures including Jonathan Edwards from America's Great Awakening period:

-The Mayan calendar ends in 2012 with the return of their flying dragon god Kulkulkan 2013

-The Aztec calendar ends in 2012 and their flying dragon god Quetzalcoatl returns after.

-The Cherokee Indian calendar ends in the year 2012 and their flying rattlesnake god returns after.

The "Cherokee Rattlesnake Prophecies," also known as the "Chickamauga Prophecy" or the "Cherokee Star Constellation Prophecies," are part of a series of apocalyptic prophecies made by members of the Cherokee tribe during 1811-1812. Like the Maya, the Cherokee calendar ends mysteriously in the year 2012 when astronomical phenomena related to Jupiter, Venus, Orion, and Pleiades cause the "powers" of the star systems to "awaken." Stars in Greek mean princes falling from the sky afterward

[Rev 12:9]

-The Hindu Kali Yuga calendar ends in the year 2012 at the conclusion of the age of "the male demon."

-According to the book, Apollyon Rising 2012, the prophecy of the Cumaean Sibyl on the Great Seal of the United States (novus ordo seclorum) points to the coming of the Antichrist after 2012.

-Over two hundred sixty years ago, the leader of the first Great Awakening in America, Jonathan Edwards, tied the arrival of the Antichrist and Great Tribulation period to the timeframe 2012 and 2016.

-One hundred thirty years after that, in 1878, Reverend William J. Reid did the same, writing in his "Lectures on the Revelation" concerning the papal system: "...we are prepared to answer the question, When will the Papal system come to an end? It will be changed in the year 2012." Interestingly Pope Benedict told his closest cardinals in secrecy back in late 2012 that he was stepping down and did so in early 2013.

The year 2012 is past, yet we need to understand that 2012 was merely predicted as the time before these "god demons" entrance on earth, yet not that they would be recognized in that year.

[Continued p. 3]

Inside this issue:

"It's Not Fair	2
Be A Page Turner	2
End Times [continued]	3
"Smart Meter" Not So Smart	4-5
Where Are All The Prophets Today?	5

TRUMPET SOUNDS

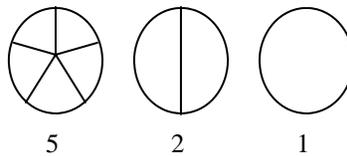

“IT’S NOT FAIR”

We have either said it or heard it said that something was not fair. The response is always the same, “Life is not fair.” Recently my granddaughter, Lauren, told me that I was not being fair when Madison, her younger sibling, got to play a game on my computer and she was not first to claim the spot. I looked her straight in the eyes and said, “I don’t play the fair game.” I treat each child as a unique individual. I do not expect them to dress alike, talk alike, or have the same interests, tastes or personalities. I do not make Lauren eat the same things that Madison likes and vice versa. [Of course, I did give them equal time on the computer.]

“Being fair” means to treat everyone as if they were the same as everyone else. God did not give us all the same fingerprints in this life. In that regard God is not fair; He is just. Just is the same as unbiased and unprejudiced, but even God does not treat us each as a carbon copy but with unique specialty. For example look at this Scripture in Matt 25:14-15 as if you were child-minded: For the king- dom of heaven is as a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

The child in us might say that God is not being fair because some are given more than others. Children never quite get the point. I taught this principle in math with fractions. Look at each of us as one whole child of God to breakdown the 5, 2 and 1 talents:

To which did God give the most? Are they not all equally whole? None have less than the whole, but each is uniquely apportioned. It would not be considered fair to a child yet the mature mind can see that we not alike, yet we are equal. God did not make us to wear the same uniform. He made us to be facets of Him. No one could contain all the facets of God, but we can all share the facet we are with the body as the Scripture tells us: Rom 12:4-5 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

We are of equal importance yet different in what God wanted to apportion us for His need. When the child of 5 talents uses the 5 given, he/she has used the whole work of God. When the one of 2 talents uses the 2 given, he/she has used the whole work of God. When the child of 1 talent uses the 1 given, he/she has used the whole work of God. It is not an issue of fairness but of equality, for God is no respecter of persons. He loves Billy Graham as much as he loved Mother Teresa, the construction worker or housewife. All we must do is use what we are given to the fullest.

BE A PAGE TURNER

Heb 12:2 ...Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith...

We are each a story authored by Jesus who is also the completer of the story. In other words, He writes the story and sees that it is completed throughout.

That being said, Satan often comes as a thief to steal a page or chapter out of our story. When we come to the lost page or chapter we count the story over whether it is about marriage, healing, financial victory or life itself. We need to stop closing the book just because the thief tore out a page. Jesus is continuing to write and can give you a new page...a new chapter. The new chapter is always going to be better than all the other chapters if we do not prematurely close the book.

Many times in chapters past, we have written in our own notes to insert our own thoughts and ideas, which may have detoured the original purpose and outcome of the chapter giving Satan opportunity to steal chapters and shorten our story. Jesus has intercessors ready to proof the errors through prayer getting even past chapters of our lives healed.

Our story should be a page turner not a book closer! From our failures to our successes, we have a witness from which others may read and grow.

If we allow Jesus the author’s license to write what He see fit, our story is filled with adventure, revelation, excitement, fulfillment and probably one of the best love stories ever...other than HIStory i.e.

Those who take the pen and write their own story find their lives as small books on dusty shelves never to be noticed or read.

We must never give Satan license to the final page which reads a line from God’s own Book: Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

Our story should never read, THE END.

ENDTIME UPDATES [Continued]

These unseen demons carry all manner of plagues, pestilence, tumultuous weather and death on the earth. This is why it is so important to be the as the Shadrach, Meshach and Abednegos of faith entering the fiery furnace of this new era. 2013 is not the end of the world but the beginning of a new era filled with fearful sights that only escalate.

Many are watching the papal system as we see the unexpected change in popes. Pope Francis, replacing Pope Benedict, was born of Roman parents. He does not call himself the Vicar of Christ as other popes, but wants to be called the Bishop of Rome. Vicar meaning earthly representation of God or Christ...very "Peterish". In the Catholic Church, the Pope is regarded as the successor of Saint Peter, the Apostle.

Malachy was a 12th century Irish Monk to whom were attributed several miracles and an apocalyptic vision of the final 112 Popes now known as the Prophecy of the Popes.

Malachy was summoned to Rome in 1139 by Pope Innocent II to receive two wool palliums for the metropolitan sees of Armagh and Cashel. While in Rome, Malachy experienced a divine vision of future popes, which he recorded as a sequence of cryptic Latin phrases describing the reign of the final remaining 112 Popes. This manuscript was then deposited in the Vatican Secret Archives, and forgotten about until its rediscovery in 1590. The prophecies were first published in 1595 by a Benedictine named Arnold de Wyon in his Lignum Vitæ, a history of the Benedictine order. Wyon includes both the alleged original prophecies, consisting of short, cryptic Latin phrases, as well as an interpretation applying the statements to historical popes. The interpretation of the prophecies for popes involves close correspondences between the mottos and the popes' birthplaces, family names, personal arms, and pre-papal titles. According to historians, Saint Malachy's Prophecy of the Popes has been highly accurate and predictions for recent popes has raised much concern. The last of the 112 Latin phrases states " In the final persecution of the Holy Roman Church, there will sit Peter the Roman, who will pasture his sheep in many tribulations, and when these things are finished, the city of seven hills will be destroyed, and the dreadful judge will judge his people. The End.

Many believed that the pope chosen, if Malachy's vision were accurate, would be named Peter, but the prophecy did not say his name would be Peter but possibly meant he would be as Peter. Remember Peter was the one who did not feel that washing his feet was enough, but that his whole body should be washed? Peter was also crucified upside-down because he felt not worthy to die as his Saviour. The new pontiff has the exact characteristics as Peter, plus the fact that he is coming at a time of church persecution just as Peter. He has made a clear division from the Vatican by being the first pope to live outside of the papal palace. He refused the ornate vesture and elaborate stone studded cross to wear the simple robes of a bishop. Did you further notice that Pope Francis was the very first to visit St. Peter's tomb?

Speaking of the Vatican, did you know that the Vatican had an observatory that is greater and more far reaching than NASA's Hubble telescope? L.U.C.I.F.E.R., which stands for "Large Utility Camera for Integral Field Extragalactic Research" is a binocular infrared telescope in Arizona. It is named Lucifer, of all things, whose name itself means "morning star". The Vatican Observatory (Specola Vaticana) is an astronomical research and educational institution supported by the Holy See. Originally based in Rome, it now has headquarters and laboratory at the papal summer residence in Castel Gandolfo, Italy, and an observatory at the Mt Graham International Observatory in the United States.

The Pontifical Academy of Sciences held its first conference on astrobiology, drawing an eclectic blend of scientists and religious leaders as well as atheist scientists to Italy for a week to discuss prospects for extra-terrestrial intelligent life, the origins of life on Earth and if alternative forms of life might be happily co-habiting with us on Earth. Guy Consolmagno—a leading astronomer who often is a spokesman for the Vatican, worked at NASA, taught at Harvard and MIT. He currently splits his time between the Vatican Observatory and laboratory (Specola Vaticana) headquartered at the summer residence of the Pope in Castel Gandolfo, Italy, and Mt. Graham in Arizona.

Over the last few years, he has focused so much of his time and effort in an attempt to reconcile science and religion in public forums specifically as it relates to the subject of extraterrestrial life and its potential impact on the future of faith. He agreed to an interview from Rome, and over the numerous exchanges that followed told of some things that seemed beyond the scope of what you might expect. He and the Vatican are considering the ramifications of astrobiology and specifically the discovery of advanced extraterrestrials...in which he admits how contemporary societies will soon "look to The Aliens to be the Saviours of humankind." Where will Pope Francis stand on this issue? It is possible that his stance may differ from the Vatican, which will cause him to come under great persecution as well as the church becoming divided? Time will tell.

I have been writing about these visitors as being identified in the Scriptures as the giants or Nephilim from Genesis 6 when they came to earth and procreated with humans against God's ordinances. They are not saviors by any description. Moses fought them; Joshua took over the fight and David finished it...or did he? We know they exist from the Word of God...we have their history. They are demonic of spirit but in physical bodies. If the Vatican positions itself in favor of these beings as saviors it will not be a hard-sell to the world upon their arrival, but many Christians will be in the battle to reconcile their faith for a new savior.

Even the enemy, Lucifer, can appear as an angel of light: 2 Cor 11:13-15 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

I wrote more in the January issue of Trumpet Sounds. It might be worth going back and looking at it again. We have to come to terms with our faith by the Word of God and make it unshakeable. We must do this early or falter in a dark day. For example if we are told that Jesus was one of the aliens being sent to heal the earth instead of the Son of God and they give this Scripture: John 1:51-2:1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

This could look like aliens were making continual contact with Jesus, but if you really look at the Scripture from the Hebrew words we see that heaven opening up actually means the Gospel opening up by the words of the messengers....prophets. All the prophets words pointed to Jesus. Look at it this way:

Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see the Gospel open, and the words of the messengers/prophets of God pointing to the Son of man.

There are so many factors in play for end times with the UN global control making a one-world government plausible, signs in the sun, moon and stars through the tedrid of 2014-2015 leading us to the Feast of Trumpets and the harvest in 2016. Will the Vatican introduce a new gospel and savior, while Pope Frances gathers a small flock of true believers or will the pope take part in ushering in the anti-Christ? [These speculations are worth the watch. If Pope Francis is anything like Peter, he will be part of serving the persecuted church in Rome as the Vatican moves to the left of faith.] Oh, yes, there is much to watch.

“SMART METERS” NOT SO SMART

Utility companies across the USA are installing the “Smart meter”, which collects personal data through electromagnetic waves rather than having to be read like the analog meter being replaced. [Pictured are 3 smart meters and an analog meter:]

People opposed to smart meters have not been arguing that the danger is in the radio waves of smart meters alone, since we get doses from cell phones and the handy dandy microwaves. Rather, a lot of them express a sort of generalized fear that there is simply “too much radiation” in our environment, and the smart meter is one more log - - perhaps one log too many - - on the fire. A little bit here...a little bit there and before you know it there is an inferno of cancer as well as other problems. Back in the early days of America the worst thing that could happen was diarrhea. (That was not a joke, by the way.)

Progress has done more to damage earth’s magnetic field than anything. What damages earth’s magnetic field damages the ecosystem and man as well. Every time a new convenience is created through technology there are newer environmental issues and health issues with which to deal. For example customers have reported new or worsening health problems since the utility smart meter system has been installed on their home or in their neighborhood.

Symptoms include:

- Sleep problems (insomnia, difficulty falling asleep, night waking, nightmares)
- Stress, agitation, anxiety, irritability
- Headaches, sharp pain or pressure in the head
- Ringing in the ears, ear pain, high pitched ringing
- Concentration, memory or learning problems
- Fatigue, muscle or physical weakness
- Disorientation, dizziness, or balance problems
- Eye problems, including eye pain, pressure in the eyes,
- Cardiac symptoms, heart palpitations, heart arrhythmias, chest pain
- Leg cramps, or neuropathy
- Arthritis, body pain, sharp, stabbing pains
- Nausea, flu-like symptoms
- Sinus problems, nose bleeds
- Respiratory problems, cough, asthma
- Skin rashes, facial flushing
- Urinary problems
- Endocrine disorders, thyroid problems, diabetes
- High blood pressure
- Changes in menstrual cycle
- Hyperactivity or changes in children’s behavior
- Seizures
- Recurrence of cancer

We are living in the time of ruling technology. Technology is the new Babel of man doing whatever he imagines to do. As stated before, with newer technologies come the side effects. But the health risks and invasion of privacy issues with the upcoming “smart meters” puts us at even greater risk.

Use the letter below to forbid smart meter installation (or modify the letter to demand the meter be removed).

From:

Energy Customer’s Name

Street Address

City State Zip

To:

Energy Provider

Street Address

City State Zip

Date of letter

NOTICE OF NO CONSENT TO TRESPASS AND SURVEILLANCE, NOTICE OF LIABILITY

Dear (Energy Provider) and all agents, officers, employees, contractors and interested parties,

If you intend to install a “Smart Meter” or any activity monitoring device at the above address, you and all other parties are hereby deny consent for installation and use of all such devices on the above property. Installation and use of any activity monitoring device is hereby refused and prohibited. Informed consent is legally required for installation of any surveillance device and any device that will collect and transmit private and personal data to undisclosed and unauthorized parties for undisclosed and unauthorized purposes. Authorization for sharing of personal and private information may only be given by the originator and subject of that information. That authorization is hereby denied and refused with regard to the above property and all its occupants. “Smart Meters” violate the law and cause endangerment to residents by the following factors:

1. They individually identify electrical devices inside the home and record when they are operated causing invasion of privacy.
2. They monitor household activity and occupancy in violation of rights and domestic security.
3. They transmit wireless signals which may be intercepted by unauthorized and unknown parties. Those signals can be used to monitor behavior and occupancy and they can be used by criminals to aid criminal activity against the occupants.
4. Data about occupant’s daily habits and activities are collected, recorded and stored in permanent databases which are accessed by parties not authorized or invited to know and share that private data by those whose activities were recorded.
5. Those with access to the smart meter databases can review a permanent history of household activities complete with calendar and time-of-day metrics to gain a highly invasive and detailed view of the lives of the occupants.
6. Those databases may be shared with, or fall into the hands of criminals, blackmailers, corrupt law enforcement, private hackers of wireless transmissions, power company employees, and other unidentified parties who may act against the interests of the occupants under metered surveillance.
7. “Smart Meters” are, by definition, surveillance devices which violate

[Continued p. 5]

SMART METERS [Continued]

Federal and State wiretapping laws by recording and storing databases of private and personal activities and behaviors without the consent or knowledge of those people who are monitored.

8. It is possible for example, with analysis of certain "Smart Meter" data, for unauthorized and distant parties to determine medical conditions, sexual activities, and physical locations of persons within the home, vacancy patterns and personal information and habits of the occupants.

9. Your company has not adequately disclosed the particular recording and transmission capabilities of the smart meter, or the extent of the data that will be recorded, stored and shared, or the purposes to which the data will and will not be put.

10. Electromagnetic and Radio Frequency energy contamination from smart meters exceeds allowable safe and healthful limits for domestic environments as determined by the EPA and other scientific programs.

I forbid, refuse and deny consent of any installation and use of any monitoring, eavesdropping, and surveillance devices on my property, my place of residence and my place of occupancy. That applies to and includes "Smart Meters" and activity monitoring devices of any and all kinds. Any attempt to install any such device directed at me, other occupants, my property or residence will constitute trespass, stalking, wiretapping and unlawful surveillance and endangerment of health and safety, all prohibited and punishable by law through criminal and civil complaints. All persons, government agencies and private organizations responsible for installing or operating monitoring devices directed at or recording my activities, which I have not specifically authorized in writing, will be fully liable for any violations, intrusions, harm or negative consequences caused or made possible by those devices whether those negative consequences are justified by "law" or not..

This is legal notice. After this delivery the liabilities listed above may not be denied or avoided by parties named and implied in this notice. Civil Servant immunities and protections do not apply to the installation of smart meters due to the criminal violations they represent.

Notice to principal is notice to agent and notice to agent is notice to principal. All rights reserved.

Signature

If you already have a smart meter installed and notice health changes you may try to opt out and have the analog meter reinstalled. However, soon there may be no choices all depending upon what the courts rule.

We seem to be in Nebuchadnezzar's fiery furnace. Once we have done all we may to put out these fires, we must realize the words of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego: [Dan 3:16-18]

"We are not careful to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up."

We remember that they were thrown into the furnace, but not a hair of their head was singed and they came out without the least smell of smoke upon them! It is these very times that Jesus is in the furnace with us to keep us from harm. Those who cast them into the furnace were consumed by the flames themselves. It would do the "powers that be" well to regard that Scripture carefully.

WHERE ARE THE PROPHETS TODAY?

Have you ever wondered where the prophets are today? Want me to tell you? You know I will anyway, right? You can find them in the Bible. Was that simple enough? Whether a prophet is alive today, we know the gift is alive by the Scripture which states: Rom 12:5-8 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching; Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

The gift does not die but continues on by multiplication: Acts 2:17-18 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

So even though many great prophets died, their words live on to fulfillment, yet in the last days of which Jesus spoke there will not be just one outstanding prophet but many sons and daughters...young men, old men and handmaidens will all have a part. Just as there are a few well known preachers there are also many more who are not well-known. It is the same with prophets in the last days. There may be a well known few but many more who are not well known.

Unfortunately there are those who, if they do not see an Elijah, think there is no prophet today. It is just a matter of religious mindset as opposed to seeing with the eyes of the Spirit. It was probably about 8-10 years ago that the Lord spoke to us at prayer meeting about storing food and water. I did not hear it on television or the news media, but little by little I started hearing others who received the same message from the LORD. It was probably 5 years ago that I started writing in the Trumpet Sounds about storing food as a warning to others. Old men and young men alike have also had this urgency as well as young women and handmaidens. If you are not hearing from the prophets today it is because you are not listening.

The other aspect of the prophet is not a person's ability to predict but a person's ability to listen and watch: Luke 12:37-38 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

Watching is the word gregoreuo to keep awake, that is, watch, be vigilant, wake, be watchful. I write many things that point to the end times prophesied. I only write them to say one thing: WATCH. I have not ask people to sell all they own and sit on a hill waiting for lift off. I do not suggest that you max out credit cards that you supposedly will not have to pay back since Jesus will come before the due bill! I am saying take a look at this...consider...watch. I encourage people not to get so caught up in life that they are too heavy in this life to be caught up in the clouds with Jesus upon His return. No man knows everything, but the Word tells us to consider and watch.

If we prepare to hit the basement during a tornado watch, how much more should we watch to be ready for Jesus return?