

TRUMPET SOUNDS

PREDICTABLE COUNTERFEIT

There is but one God and one counterfeit. The counterfeit, however, has many disguises that all point to the same delusion of being god. Many cultures have adopted Satan by other names as their god. One civilization which adopted Satan was the Maya who named their counterfeit Quetzalcoatl also named Kukulcan by the Aztecs. Naturally Satan is predictable no matter the name or culture adopting him as we see in Quetzalcoatl which is a "serpent god" requiring human sacrifice.

Death to human life is the general purpose of Satan, who cannot defeat God so he picks on God's children. This is no different than any coward or bully. The interesting thing is how Satan can get humans to sacrifice their own...generally children. Whenever history shows the outcry for a deliverer, Satan starts the process of abortion...human sacrifice, often through war and population control or abortion. This is just the opposite of God's promise to Abraham about innumerable seed. One very prominent time that we read about is during the time of Moses. God's children cried out for a deliverer. Satan heard the cry and knew a deliverer was on the way. Did Satan know who the deliverer was? NO! So, in order to stop this deliverer he went after the children by a simple whisper in the Pharaoh's ear. The Pharaoh then, fearing the rise of a vast Jewish population, went into population control, in other words, the abortion of the Jewish male babies. Of course, Satan cannot stop what God births, however, you will find that destruction precedes as an unsuccessful attempt.

Moses was saved in the ark, just as Noah was saved in the ark of his day. Though Satan caused death and destruction, still the deliverer came forth. Rachel weeping for her child was heard in more than one generation. Later it would be King Herod who would start the population control with the slaughter of babies two years old and under, but the Deliverer did come once again.

Whenever you see population control and abortion of babies you know one thing...Satan is nervous because a savior is on the way! Satan being the predictable foe will use every effort to stop the inevitable. Not only does the enemy work overtime in getting people to slaughter their own by abortion, but he brings false prophesies of "end of the world" destructions in the guise of being from God. Satan cannot end the world. All Satan can do is cause the world to become sick.

We see the enemy's efforts today on a grand scale of the earth becoming sick, population control, abortion and false prophesies of the world ending in 2012. Of course, the world will not end in 2012 nor did even the Maya predict that it would. Satan has used media hype and fear of the unknown to stir men's hearts to faint. Yet the bottom line is that deliverance is on the way. Even Satan knows this, which is why we are in for some destruction, as I stated before, preceding the deliverance. Notice what the Truth says: Luke 21:25-28 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

That was not a "Mayan Calendar" prediction; Jesus said it, and Satan wants to counterfeit it through pagan means.

The Lord did not tell me anything about 2012 but did give me one word of warning: ARK. I knew exactly what He meant and wrote about it. Deliverance is on the way but so is the destruction preceding it. It is time to get your ark ready to make it through the floodgates of destruction. God always protects His children with warnings to prepare. This is not a message of doom but of hope. We can ride out the storm by listening to the Spirit of God. Never take the attitude of Que Sera Sera but read the signs of the times and ready the ark. Preparation has never hurt anyone, while lack thereof is devastating.

By the way, do not take your signals from the Maya. Their god wiped out their cities long ago.

RELIGION TEST

Back in December of 2011 there was a news article on MSNBC on "Religious Knowledge". Their results were that atheists knew more about religion than Christians. I went on the website to take the test myself. I was more interested in the questions on which they based their assessments than my own score. Here were the questions and choices:

1. Which Bible figure is most closely associated with leading the exodus from Egypt? Job-Elijah-Moses-Abraham
2. What was Mother Teresa's religion? Jewish-Catholic-Buddhist-Mormon-Hindu
3. Which is not one of the Ten Commandments? Do not commit adultery-Do not commit adultery-Do not steal-Keep the Sabbath holy
4. When does the Jewish Sabbath begin? Friday-Saturday-Sunday
5. Ramadan is...? Hindu Festival of Lights-Islamic holy month-Jewish Day of Atonement
6. Catholic belief of communion is...? The bread and wine become the actual body of Christ-The bread and wine are symbols of the body of Christ
7. In which religion are Vishnu and Shiva central figures? Islam-Hinduism-Taoism
8. Which Bible character remained obedient despite his many sufferings? Elijah-Moses-Abraham-Job
9. What was Joseph Smith's religion? Catholic-Jewish-Buddhist-Mormon-Hindu
10. U. S. Supreme Court ruled that a public school teacher could or could not lead class in prayer?
11. U.S. Supreme Court ruled that a public school teacher could or could not read from the Bible as an example of literature?

12. People of Pakistan consider themselves...? Buddhist-Hindu-Muslim-Christian
13. Whose writings and actions inspired the Protestant Reformation? Martin Luther-Thomas Aquinas-John Wesley
14. The religion which aims at nirvana as the state of being free from suffering? Islam-Hinduism-Buddhism
15. Which preacher participated in religious activity of the First Great Awakening? Jonathan Edwards-Charles Finney-Billy Graham

Not one of these questions made mention of what the Bible calls pure religion found in James 1:26-27: If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

The first thing mentioned is to speak your faith. If you speak outside of your faith, then your religion is in vain. Yet how many times do you hear people criticize "Faith teachers"? God is the Great I AM. I AM what? Well, God is salvation/Yahshua. If we put both the Hebrew and Greek definitions for salvation after the I AM, we see who God is, for example:

- I AM deliverance
- I AM healing
- I AM victory
- I AM prosperity
- I AM health
- I AM help

I AM welfare

I AM safety

I AM rescue

We as believers in the Word of God, who confess salvation as a main part of our faith, do not always speak our faith:

I AM sick

I AM depressed

I AM broke

I AM helpless

Etc. etc. etc.

If we have salvation but do not speak our salvation our religion is vain. "But what if I need prayer? James 5:13-16 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms. Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

If you need prayer get it, but do not go around telling every one I AM this, that and the other! The only reason people keep talking about "their" malady after they have been prayed for is that they did not invest themselves in the prayer, healing or invest themselves in their own faith but took their faith in vain. It is also taking the name of the Lord in vain meaning "to no effect". When we pray, we are to believe we have received it, and we shall have it.

It goes on to say that pure religion is to look after the fatherless and widows as well as to keep unspotted from the world.

Do we take care of our widows? This has been left to the deacons, however, this is not solely for the deacons but for all of the church to take on.

The fatherless in that Scripture is not only speaking of the orphan, but those whose parents are too busy working to attain things that the children slip through the cracks undisciplined and untaught in the ways they should be going. In other words, it is also talking about children whose parents are too busy for them. But there is another abandonment called abortion. Speaking of the fatherless, this is a life without the aid of any parent to save them from being burned to death or dismembered and thrown into the garbage.

Lastly, I think we understand not becoming entangled with the world and all that is involved with that.

Those main points are what the Bible calls pure religion. None of these points were mentioned in the Religious Knowledge test in the polls taken. In that case, I suppose that atheists did score higher than most Christians in their search for something...anything! I wonder, though, how many Christians would have known how to answer the question if asked to define pure religion.

It is amazing what Christians are not aware. When Denny and I were in Athens, Greece back in the 70's, we visited the Acropolis. Our tour guide did not ask us questions to see what we knew about Greece but instead asked questions we should know about our own country, and we failed miserably. He gave us the answers that we had not been able to answer to our shame. If Christians do not know their rights in faith, or live the faith they confess themselves to have, as well as knowing their rights as American citizens, they are apt to lose their very freedom through ignorance.

What is God to do? He has already died for us. The least we could do is start living for Him. Study the BOOK.

UNITED I STAND; DIVIDED I FALL

Eccl 4:12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Looking at the Scripture we see that “one” in Hebrew is 'echad which is a united person. A united person is one in his spirit, soul and body. One united person has the ability to prevail. When the soul and spirit are united in purpose the deed is done before it is even off the ground. This was David's key in his youth. He faced Goliath as a united ONE. Just as Father, Son and Holy Spirit are a united ONE, we as a triune being must be united as one.

While David's spirit and soul were in fine agreement, which leaves the body to follow the lead of the soul.

The spirit is always willing to accomplish whether a Godly spirit or demonic spirit. When the spirit and the soul are united in purpose, whether the deed is good or bad, that ONE may prevail. Hitler was ONE in purpose. Look at all that one man was able to do, and he even had people around him who looked for the chance to destroy him to no avail. It took the unity of nations to stop what one man started.

“THIS TOO SHALL PASS”

Often when facing hard times someone will say, “This too shall pass.” Of course, it is not a Scripture as some might suppose, but it has Scriptural soundness to it.

If you think about it, Satan is not omnipresent and cannot keep an attack ongoing forever. This is why the Scriptures instruct that when we have done all to do...STAND. We are to armor up and stand our ground. Our stand must outlast Satan's time constraints. Remember he knoweth that he hath but a short time, and the

One cord or I should say one in accord is an extremely strong self! If we are not united in our being we have a fray. Any cord which has a fray becomes weakened by that fray. Here are some examples of frays:

- Fear
- Doubt
- Low-self-esteem
- Intellectual reasoning

These are but a few frays in our soul that break unity with our spirit. “How do I know if I am divided against myself?” you may ask. A good rule of thumb for me is to check my flesh. Is it sickly or well, at peace or troubled? Your flesh is the thermometer of the whole because it is, as Jesus said, the weakest member. If your flesh is not well, the key to the fray will be found in a division between your spirit and soul.

Jesus cast out spirits of infirmity from those who came to Him “in faith” believing in Him. They were not possessed but oppressed of a spirit. As a spirit attacked, their soul became afflicted in fear, which caused the infirmity to prevail, and the flesh displayed the temperature of the whole! Sickness became the express unity of the spirit of infirmity, clock is ticking. The enemy has more on his agenda than to scrap with each of us, and there are only so many demons to assign, since God's children are as the stars for number and cannot be counted. Satan only has about 1/3 of any number. There is just neither the time nor the entities available to continue forever.

That being said, I will warn you that Satan knows how mankind will adapt to being under attack and even when he ceases, we pick up the mallet and continue on in his stead! The results are soul and body.

Have you ever seen a person's whole body crumble to the attention of a stubbed toe? This is a picture of what one fray can do to the whole person as well. Every part of the body rushes to aid the toe. In other words, the whole body is bowing to the toe. One little toe is like one little fray...and the whole man is bowed over grabbing the toe and yelling in pain.

The champions of the Bible display a united self. One united self can prevail. It just depends in what you are united. Is your soul united in agreement to your perfect spirit and Truth, or is your soul reacting to a spiritual attack?

As a saved blood-bought Christian your spirit is perfect, but your soul must still be crucified and in subjection to that perfect spirit. When you see that your flesh is weak, this is telling you that your soul has not converted in agreement to the faith as your perfect spirit. There is a fray.

How do we identify the fray? Well, to what are you a-frayed? Fear is the first key to a fray. That fear will lend itself over to doubting your faith. We are then plagued by the “what-ifs” and picture the worst case scenario. A person a-frayed is one who will not prevail in an attack but becomes knotted up inside with fear. There is nothing more destructive than becoming a-frayed knot. Do you believe God healed you? You can see the response.

I have seen many frayed knots come to prayer meeting for strength in the unified prayers of ONE unified body of believers. This goes on to the rest of Eccl 4:12. If you are a-frayed knot, get with those who will stand with you as that threefold cord. Ben Franklin had a good saying which goes: A stitch in time saves nine. Think about that for just a moment in light of this article. You might need one good stitch in prayer support to stop the fray from raveling further.

If you think about it, one united person IS a threefold cord...body serving soul, soul serving spirit and spirit serving God. A strong circle of unity.

Call your three-fold being into their ranks of service and function in unity. Discern the frays and be a-frayed of nothing!

identical because our mind accepts it as such.

We need to realize that all things in life are temporary. If going well savor the moment, it will not last forever. If going badly do not worry and fret, it will also pass.

You would think that a relatively smart person would remember how fleeting these times come and go, but all too often we turn mole hills into mountains as Satan hits our panic button and then forget that we have mustard seed faith to cast those mountains into the sea. Instead, we spend sleepless nights and worrisome days giving more thought to these temporal puddles than they deserve. Those thoughts consume us, which is exactly as the enemy has calculated.

So, the next time the enemy pushes the panic button remember that he has but a short time, says the Word of God, for he too shall pass!

THE TRUMPET IS TO THE LIPS: VISION

Back in the 70's I had a vision. I have written this before, but with the Trumpet Sounds widening audience, and the times we are heading toward, I feel compelled to repeat it. I will not give all the details, but just what I think is important for you to know, however, I will tell you that it was written by the hand of God in my vision for me to share. The Scripture I received to confirm this was Hab 2:2-3...Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

There were only two types of people in the vision:

1. People in white robes, whirling and dancing as if celebrating as I read the papers from the Lord's hand. [The hand of the Lord pointed and words appeared.]
2. People crawling on their bellies with sickness, plague, and some burned as if from radiation...none of these were standing.

Here are three main areas I noticed and questioned. These are the three main areas and the answers God gave me:

1. Condition of the land: I noticed that there was no green, growing life. The land had the appearance of a desert. Where the land does not produce there is famine. This nation under God has been an abundance of plenty and then some. We have helped to feed the world during times of their distress because of our excess. But the government removed our covering to be like the rest of the world, and we will get what we want, but we will not like what we get! I saw famine coming to our nation. The only cause of this famine shown to me is that when the spiritual covering of this nation changed from God to secular starving the faith of the Christians through their laws, its abundance will be afflicted as well. They cannot have their cake and eat it too. In order to eat the fat of the land the people must perpetuate its nourishing growth in the spiritual food of the Word. As this nation lacks in the spirit of God so will it lack in the natural. The black horse of famine is on its way and will spread through the nation.

2. Condition of the weather: Though I did not see what others saw about chaotic weather and forces of a destructive nature, I saw dry ground or drought. While the government has sown the famine, it will be the church that causes the great drought. It is the responsibility of the church to send the washing of the water by the Word out to a thirsting world. The churches have dried up the spiritual water with programs in place of Truth and organization in place of hearing God and allowing the Holy Spirit to move. They have devalued the Word for the philosophies of man. I have written this before, but the church cannot just know about God, WE MUST KNOW HIM. Church attendance is not the same as a personal relationship. The church has gotten so far away from God that when they call on Him, the call is long distance; this comes as a great charge upon the church that could have had God in residence to freely communicate up close and personal. Because the church has left righteousness for political correctness to enter the new age, she has dried up the water of the Word and settled for a spiritual drought. Drought will be worse than the famine in this nation.

3. Condition of mortality: When a nation takes innocent lives and dumps them into the garbage cans of convenience they reap back death. I saw a horrific holocaust of death through plague, pestilence and war [nuclear]. This is not just what the world is reaping but also the Christians who have put their hand to a vote with a platform of abortion. Those who put their hands to a vote toward an abortion platform will taste of its benefits in sickness, death and destruction. What you serve will serve you in like manner. The pale horse of death is riding into our towns. You will either have the blood of the Lamb or the blood of innocent lives upon your doorpost. You cannot have both, and you will reap accordingly.

We make our choices, and our choices make us. We will be living the consequences of our choices. Here is where I saw two types of people. While I witnessed all of us living in the same conditions, we were not all living the conditions in the same way. I saw two very different kinds of people.

Let me be very clear as to whom the crawling people included. First of all it is those who live their lives imbedded in the world, but it will reach its grasp into the churches for those who label themselves as Christians, yet live as the world. Many calling themselves Christians are living double lives that God views as Lukewarm. Lukewarm Christians, having one foot in the world and the cares of the world making an occasional drop-in-howdy-do in the Kingdom, will eat from the same plate as the world. Let me refresh God's Words exactly: Rev 3:15-16 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

Everything I have been talking about is not the wrath of God but a day of wrath. This is from man's wrath due to the judgments man has made, and man's judgment coming back to him. These are not God's punishments but man's consequences. Rom 2:5-6 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

We are all going to live our consequences. The fruit we eat will be the ingredients of our living. How many Christians voted for a president who favored abortion? Our current President stated that his pay-grade was not high enough to make the call of life for the unborn child, but as soon as he got in office he removed the ban on partial birth abortion. In other words, his pay-grade was high enough to make a decision on the side of death to innocent life. Maybe you do not understand what partial birth abortion is, although the phrase is very clear. The doctor dilates the cervix and grabs the legs of the healthy, fully formed baby with forceps from the birth canal except for the head. A vacuum tube is inserted in the back of the baby's head and the brain is sucked out so that the head collapses, and its lifeless body is withdrawn and thrown away. This is not without pain to the child. I do not apologize for the graphic picture. God's eyes are not spared this graphic picture on a daily basis. There are many very nice Christians who are sickly, even dying and do not have a clue that what they are reaping is exactly to what they have put their hand. I do not write this to condemn anyone, but that you may repent, turn from that ignorance, be healed, restored and live.

If we are silent in the face of error, then we reluctantly embrace that with which we abhor. We cannot think that our ignorance keeps us from harm just because we are nice Christians who go to church on Sunday and do not cuss! We will give an answer for the things to which we put our hands. Our consequences find us out and are not ruled by whether or not we are nice people. Many nice people are sickly and dying wondering why, yet do not consider that they have not fully invested in moral faith. A moral conscience is not a political party. It is taking a stand for righteousness and investing in our most holy faith convictions.

One day we may have no moral choice in which to put a vote. I guess in that day I will have to write in the name of Jesus....After all, He is coming back you know.
