

TRUMPET SOUNDS

Editor: Dennis O'Connor

POSITION YOURSELF

Inside this issue:

Be Warned	2
State Of The Union	3
The Lao-deceived Church	3
Established In Heaven	4
Do Not Be Deceived	4
TONGUES!	5

The word position has three general ideas:

1. It is a place or location
2. It is an attitude
3. It is a set of circumstances, conditions and situations

Positioning yourself would be the same as...Stand fast or Stand therefore, as the Word encourages. When the Scriptures admonish us to stand, it is to take our position to fight the good fight of faith.

You can position yourself to fail or win depending upon your stand. There are two positions to take in any given situation. We will either position ourselves in and with God's Word or outside of God's Word.

The world has no absolute truths but each does what is right in his own eyes. This brings confliction of ideas and philosophies which are never concrete but shaky and changeable with each situation making compromises. There is no security and no valid truth on which to base decisions outside of God's Word.

Take, for instance, a candidate that stands on a platform of abortion rights yet says they are not personally for abortion. They speak with a forked tongue and unable to stand on what is absolute. They are diluted of purpose. Just as a swaying tree in the wind, these have not roots to hold them straight.

God has appointed us for a purpose in a location with an attitude to be victors and over-comers in all situations.

When we position ourselves in God, we have the ability to defeat the enemy and stand no matter the wind.

God is calling us to stand in these days. We had better practice now, for greater winds are just ahead in which greater roots are needed to keep us well grounded.

CHILDREN WHO HATE BATHING

We all know children that have resisted bath time as torture. Yet, it had no real pain, but the pain was in the resistance itself and not in becoming clean. Replacing the word bathing with purging or pruning and we think of the same resistance and pain as the child rebellious to bath time. Why are we so resistant to being cleansed? Why is it said to be so painful when there is no blood letting involved...on God's part anyway?

Purging and pruning is no different than bathing since all three are a form of cleansing us. Look at the words under translation:

Pruning: kathairo, which means to cleanse.

Purge: diakatharizo means to cleanse perfectly.

What is so distasteful about being clean? People do not like to be clean when they have become fond of dirt.

It is amazing to me how Satan can sell dirt so easily while becoming clean seems such a great undertaking?

Stop seeing dirt as appealing with opened eyes to discern the truth about dirt. Be refreshed in the washing of the water by the Word. It is not as bad as it has been preached. God is not beating you up. It is just ridiculous for us to fight this bathing/cleansing with kicking and crying as if we will die.

The less resistant we are the less painful it is. The easy solution, therefore, is stop resisting and hiding and get into the tub!

BE WARNED

“Thousands of residents from Jiangxi and Foshan in China reported seeing a ‘floating city’ in the sky last month. The images and grainy video footage appear to show towering skyscrapers poking out of the clouds and looming over the ground below.”

Explanations for the event have ranged from a glitch in the matrix, alternate universes opening up and NASA experimenting with holograms through a plan called the “Blue Beam Project”. Project Blue Beam is a conspiracy to attempt to instill a New World Order by making the masses believe in a technologically simulated second coming of Christ. Does this simply sound like the crazy ranting of a conspiracy theory? The Bible does not give a theory but a prophetic warning: 2 Thess 2:9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders...

These LYING signs and wonders are technological tricks fooling the mind. The Scriptures are not speculating a theory of what could happen, but telling us what surely will happen. We simply have not figured how it would be done.

Let me digress back to an event in 1938 of a radio broadcast performed as a supposed “Halloween hoax” aired over CBS through the Mercury Theatre written and directed by Orson Wells of the H.G. Wells 1898 novel “War Of The Worlds”.

The first two thirds of the 60 minute broadcast were presented as a series of simulated news bulletins without commercials, which suggested to many listeners that an alien invasion by Martians was actually occurring. Compounding the issue was the fact that the Mercury Theatre show ran without commercial breaks, adding to the program's realism.

Orson Welles apologized for the hysteria this radio show created. The Princeton University Radio Project, under supervision of psychologist Dr. Paul F. Lazarsfeld, Frank Stanton (later head of CBS Radio and Television) and Dr. Hadley Cantril, hired Orson Welles to adapt H. G. Wells' fiction book “The War of the Worlds” to the radio format in order to study the behavior of citizens under panic conditions.

Not only was the panic created by a fictional Martian invasion the night before Halloween anticipated by its producers, the program was purposely crafted to create mayhem and terror.

This secret test was used to judge susceptibility to phobias, fatalism and the fear of war. Members of the general public were later interviewed and their reactions were paired against such variables as religion, education, year and make of car, reading materials, job security, etc. Cantril later wrote a paper entitled: “The Invasion from Mars -- A Study in the Psychology of Panic”. Cantril's study examined the power of the radio broadcast media and its effects upon a population under the direct influence of fear.

During WWII, Edward R. Murrow, also a CFR member, was paid by the Rockefeller Foundation and Dr. Cantril to monitor Nazi radio propaganda and judge its effectiveness.

From this project sprang the FBIS (Foreign Broadcast Intelligence Service) which eventually became the US Information Agency, used by the National Security Council as its chief disseminator of propaganda after WWII.

Now let me repeat this Scripture: 2 Thess 2:7-9 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth [holds it back] will let, until he be taken out of the way [fails from strength]. 8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: 9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders...

Now, I want you to imagine what you would do if you saw Jesus in the sky...the Jesus you have been hearing, reading and expecting to appear. He comes as a uniter of nations into ONE WORLD UTOPIA to set up his kingdom. How well do you know Jesus? How well do you know Him as THE WORD, and how well do you know the WORD? Or, what about this scenario: realistic holograms of alien attackers? A comment by both Pres. Reagan and Pres. Clinton stated that the only thing that could possibly unite this world is an attack from another world. No, I do not have a hallucinating imagination. There is an evil in the world today conceiving delusions that only Scripture tells us, but we do not seem to understand the weight of these warnings.

Mark 13:22-27 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. 23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things. 24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, 25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. 26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. 27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

I am not saying how things will happen, only that we need to be aware not to believe even what we may see with our own eyes. Also note that it is the message of Jesus that holds our attention. Part of the definition of Zahar is to warn. Each of us has our call differing from another.

This is the time to come to the conclusion of the words Jesus spoke through the Gospels and Revelation.

If you are not working in the power of the Holy Spirit, who opens the door to all understanding and discernment, I do not know how you will have the wisdom to stand in a very difficult time where Satan is using all out efforts to confuse and control our reactions and shake our faith.

The hour is now; get into the BOOK. The two most important factors is to know WHO He is and WHOSE you are!

TETRAD AFTERMATH?

People think that nothing has happened from this last tetrad, 2014-2015, of any monumental significance, but I am going to prove them wrong. I will show you in two pictures and two Scriptures what has happened in this country.

2 Thess 2:3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

2 Thess 2:7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

While the Ten Commandments have and continue being pulled down throughout the country, recently in the city of Detroit a giant statue of satan was erected in the open for all to see. This is the state of the Union today... Isa 5:20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

Our President has no problem funding Iran, who hates us, building their strength while depleting our own military.

Of course this is not the only thing of increased evil that has happened recently. Gog and Magog are coming into place for the final battle. “Gog and Magog War” is the dubbed by eschatologists to the prophecy found in the book of Ezekiel 38-39. In this prophecy Magog (Russia) and their counterparts unite and rise against the nation of Israel. We have yet to see the fulfillment of this Biblical prophecy, however today we are witnessing the formation of these alliances of Russia and Iran.

When I was in my late 20's reading about beheading in end times I thought surely no one does this barbaric method in the century, but I was so wrong.

Rev 20:4

And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

ISIS is systematically beheading Christians-men, woman, and children in an ethnic cleansing. “A Christian Holocaust is in our midst. We are actually calling this a Christian genocide... Day by day, it is getting worse and worse. More children are being beheaded. Mothers are being raped and killed. Fathers are being hung. Right now, 300,000 Christians are fleeing Iraq and living in neighboring cities.” (This was 2014 and is increasing 2015)

People who assume because a meteor did not hit their town or earthquake swallow their home that nothing of any significance is happening. Do we not know what is happening in our world, nation, town? (And since this writing on Oct 31, a comet 5 football field's in length came close to hitting earth and from the picture looked as if a skull mocking us.)

No one seems to be paying attention, however.

THE LAO-DECEIVED CHURCH...WARNING, proceed at your own risk!

Rev 3:15-16 ...thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

If your faith is lukewarm, then the answers to your petitions are the same. Nothing much is happening for you other than the trials of a fallen world. Lukewarm temperatures ferment, which may explain all the “Whine-Os.” Yeast bacteria grows in lukewarm temperatures. As a matter of fact bacteria itself grows best in lukewarm, humid, dim and dark places. It is heat of the SON, water and light that bears fruit.

The Laodicean church was mildewed, dank and smelly. It grew mold quite well. They were as close to being a headache to the universe as anything could be.

They are the ones whose pants were around their ankles for no belt of Truth to hold them up. Every placement of their feet was on sharp stones for not having their feet shod properly with the Gospel of peace. There is no peace in murmuring and complaining everywhere you go. There is no peace in talking about your brothers and sisters and stirring divisions. Though they have teeth they are still sucking the nipple. The sword of the Spirit is only a butter knife that has no ability to cut to the meat of anything.

These people did not have enough fuel to light a match, let alone save themselves or anyone else from the flames of hell fire.

They can always do something tomorrow for the Lord. Tomorrow is always perpetually tomorrow. You never arrive at tomorrow today...just saying.

Lao-deceived is what the Lord gave me to pray this morning. That was what He called them.

In my prayer, just as Ezekiel called dry bones together, I called the Lao-deceived to become Lao-received! I took them to court and sentenced them to community SERVICE. I told them to gird up their loins like children of God and pull up their big boy/girl pants and march in the ranks of the living.

There is just nothing worse than a bunch of grown adult Christians talking about the love of God while they are mad at everybody, preaching about healing while they limp, singing about the joy of the Lord as they take their anti-depressant!

COME ON NOW!

Stop testifying what you cannot even believe yourself! I am taking the covers off that big lump in the bed you call yourself and exposing you to some reality.

God is too good to have hung on a cross for you to take for granted or to take advantage. That list of todos never has your own name on it; it is always for God to-do.

There are two sides to a covenant...only one side is called a coven and we all know who is in charge of that.

If you do not want to be one of the Lao-deceived then change your pew...pronounced PU, and come away from the dung hill of apathy and say today is the day I stand! Today I gird my loins with Truth and march. TODAY, THIS HOUR, THIS SEASON, I STAND FULLY SUITED!

ESTABLISHED IN HEAVEN

Matt 18:18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Binding and loosing were terms in frequent use among the Jews, which meant bidding, and forbidding, granting and refusing, declaring lawful or unlawful, etc. in accordance with God's Word.

Everything that God has set is finished, whether it came to pass or will come to pass...IT IS ALREADY SET IN HEAVEN.

When we know the Word of God, we know what is permitted or refused by God's Word. When we, therefore, bind or loose something on earth...it is already established in heaven.

It is like the perfect court case where all your ducks are in a perfect row, every "i" dotted and every "t" crossed to win in the heavenly court.

When you know to what God put His signature of "amen and so be it", you can declare it and it is already established.

We have the agreement in heaven to bind what unlawfully comes our way and it is accomplished because it is already established.

All we do when we bind something is to have the high court prosecute the matter as we have spoken.

What "IS WRITTEN" is set in stone; we just bring attention to it in the spiritual court of heaven. The High Judge watches over His set Word to perform it. We speak it and He performs it.

Also notice in that Scripture that we bind or loose WHATSOEVER not WHO-

SOEVER.

You can bind the strong man (Mt 12:29, Mk 3:27), which is the spiritual enemy as Eph 6:12 states: principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Though you cannot bind a person, you can bind the spiritual enemy using that person. Satan is already defeated by God's Word, so in speaking God's Word you are testifying your God given, legal right to have victory over the enemy.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED

Luke 21:3 Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

Matt 24:5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

Mark 13:6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

With campaign speeches flooding all medias, we hear how everyone running for office affirms Christianity or they want you to assume it. They claim it whether or not they are truly who they say they are. Jesus gave us a litmus test: 1 John 4:2-3 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

That word "confesseth" in Hebrew is more than just speaking it because the word is homologeō means to be in covenant with.

Covenant is oneness with Christ. That is, that they represent Christ and all of the Scriptures pertaining to life. They cannot say "I am Christ-ian" and represent what is unholy or anti-Christ.

If those who come in the flesh of anything other than Christ though they confess to be Christian but lie, they are a spirit of anti-Christ.

Nor do those who stand on a platform of anything contrary to God's laws and Will can announce that they are Godly, for they are deceived.

Soon we will be closing ourselves in booths to do in secret what God will see. Are we Christ come in the flesh? Are we in covenant with Christ? If our actions express Jesus throughout and not only promises to entitle the poor, but for the poorest among us, which is the voiceless orphan cast in garbage cans after their dead parts are harvested to the highest bidder.

A booth in Hebrew is a Sukkot. It symbolizes having left the captivity of Egypt (anti-God) to follow God in liberty. I am going to encourage you that when you enter into the booth, what you put your hand to is Christ come in the flesh.

Do not mark the words of candidates as being good unless they are God, for only God is Good. Jesus even said: Matt 4:4 It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

There is a mark of loyalty to a kingdom. What you support is the mark you take. It may be invisible to the world but it is visible to God as well as principalities of darkness.

This nation was easily duped because the majority of Christians are void of God's Word in their hearts. Without Jesus being the heart of His people they fall prey to every titillating speech in promises of prosperity. All those who put their trust in mammon will find their pockets filled with holes:

Hag 1:6-7 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

TONGUES!

This subject is a fire of discussion causing many divisions.

One church says without tongues you do not have the Holy Spirit. Another says that tongues are known languages in existence on earth as opposed to the undistinguishable babbling that they conclude of satanic origin. Still others say that they believe in tongues, but that it is not for everyone, with the majority either uncaring of the subject or being most confused and therefore reject considering it.

Let me just state right here and now to abate argument, that the most important tongue in any language you could ever speak is the Word of God. When our heart converts to Christ Jesus, we should think with renewed minds and speak the freshness language of the Word. This is the most crucial tongue to have which is definitely inspired by the Holy Spirit of God. The sign of the Holy Spirit in you is that you speak with new tongues, which is the freshness of the Scriptures in all situations and circumstances first and foremost. This is the best and most important advice I give and uncontestable by any church affiliation who holds the Word of God to be Truth. Amen.

Understanding the spiritual tongues, however, has been held with such controversy probably because we have not distinguished the difference. We limit what we believe, while God is limitless. God does not follow our rules of spiritual, denominational etiquette.

Scriptures referring to "other tongues" is not the same as "unknown tongues" or "praying in the spirit". Everything has been grouped into just one version...TONGUES. Let me break it down. "Other tongues" in Greek is: heteros glossa a different or un-acquired language that has not been learned or taught to one, but acquired miraculously by the Spirit of God and can be interpreted by one who speaks that language. This happened in the early church and has happened today. These were known earthly languages: Acts 2:8-11 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

There is, however, another term "praying in the Spirit" that can be confused with other tongues. The language of the Spirit is unintelligible to the world, which is to say incomprehensible, mumbled, inarticulate and garbled, yet only discernable by the Spirit who also gives the interpretation, for no other earthly person can do it outside the Spirit. This is the kind of praying that Paul refers to: 1 Cor 14:18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all... Paul was not speaking known earthly languages, one day Italian for the Romans another day Greek for the Greeks etc. etc., but unknown spiritual tongues.

1 Cor 14:13-15 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

Both praying in the Spirit and interpretation should come from the same person. Why? Because the tongue was not an intelligible language for an earthly interpreter of the language. Again, both the tongue and the interpretation must come from the Spirit. Just muttering an unintelligible language serves no purpose without the understanding of what the Spirit is saying.

1 Cor 14:2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

This is not the "other tongues" spoken miraculously as we see in the Acts 2 event because it was not spoken for the edification of men recognizing their mother tongue miraculously. This is a personal communication of our spirit to God's Spirit in which He is revealing something quite personal.

One learned minister said that an experiment was done to disprove and make suspect these "so called" unintelligible tongues. They recorded a person speaking in the unintelligible mutterings or "babbling", as he called it. They then took the recording to several different ministers to interpret. The interpretation was not identical by any of the interpreters. Their conclusion based upon this experiment was that this was a bogus practice of a people duped by satanic ritual. Of course, human thinking and reasoning is that God could not take one unknown tongue and make it understandably personalized and pertinent in design to an individual, yet different according to what another might need to hear when presented. Let me repeat: GOD DOES NOT FOLLOW MAN'S RULES OF SPIRITUAL, DENOMINATIONAL ETIQUETTE.

How like the miraculous Word of God, that It can speak comfort to one, direction to another and admonishment all in one and the same verse, yet understood and taken personally by the one reading it. It is just like God, who designed the universe, to speak personally to the heart of each child. This is not to say that the Word has changed, only that it is personally received by the heart in the translation given by the Holy Spirit.

The Bible Itself is not a book of black and white written upon flat paper...except to the world. Reading the Bible without the Holy Spirit makes it just another book. The Holy Spirit opens the understanding to each of us personally. To a Believer the pages are a personal relationship having dimension because the Word is a Living Being: John 1:1-3 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

I was in a family of four children having the same parents, yet we each had a different relationship with our parents. My relationship with Mom and Dad was personal, as was theirs yet not the same, because we were individuals with different make-up, personalities and needs. It is the same with God. He loves us all the same, yet we, not being the same, have different relationships with Him. You may wonder how He can do that for the millions and billions of people and still know the count of the hair, ever changing, on our heads...because HE IS GOD! He does not fit into our thinking and we must become as children to receive the faith just to believe it. The intellectual has difficulty with spiritual matters that cannot be boxed and sorted systematically.

Other tongues are earthly tongues acquired miraculously. Praying in the spirit is praying in unintelligible, indistinguishable, unearthly sounds, groans and mutterings, yet the mind is receiving understanding that is fruitfully planted by the Spirit of God.

In conclusion, be careful how you judge the matter, since you could be judging the Spirit of God, and pray for understanding. Above all things speak the language of the Word of God, which is the golden language, a sure foundation and a miracle in Itself. Amen.