COINCIDENCE???

Gen 1:14 tells us that there are heavenly bodies for signs and appointed times. We remember that the wise men followed the star, which told them of the Messiah being born, and an eclipse that turned the day to night at Jesus' death on the cross in the middle of the day accompanied by a great earthquake. (I have written about the signs in the blood moons of 2014-2015, which have accompanied many trials and nations in tribulation as well as Israel becoming a nation once again at the four blood moons of 1967.)

Mark Biltz, original author of Blood Moons, said about the total solar eclipses: "Just look at the biblical pattern. Many know the story of Jonah and Nineveh from the Bible, but not the historical background events as to what had already transpired, and why they repented. In 765 B.C., a plague broke out in Nineveh where even the king was not able to go out to war, as was custom. This was followed by a civil war and then another plague! An archaeological find of cuneiform tablets was found in the 19th century describing events in Nineveh. A famous eclipse mentioned in the tablets was known as the Bur-Sagale eclipse, which is verified by NASA as occurring on June 15, 763 BC. The path of totality was right over Nineveh. God had declared the sun and the moon were for signs, and now the Ninevites saw the wrath of God coming even before Jonah arrived a couple months later. When Jonah arrived, they were ripe for repentance."

How many people truly know what God is saying to the nations? The church, in general, is not using the gifts of the Spirit. Not many are being prepared or told to watch because it is almost a Christian taboo that if we do regard heavenly signs we are "messing with astrology" tempting hell fire judgment.

Quite a few Bible stories would have been eliminated if God's messages in the heavens had not been regarded. God is a supernatural God, while His children, who believe in Him, do not do so out of superstition but by the supernatural as well. 2 Tim 3:5 ...Having a form of godliness, but denying the power (dunamis-supernatural, miraculous force of power) thereof...

Jesus said many things in parting that we should take very seriously: Luke 12:37-38 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. Matt 24:32-33 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Then Jesus said something that should bother us all: Luke 18:8 ...Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

For those of you who do not poo-poo the signs of the heavens when aligned with Scripture and Jewish appointed seasons of feast days, I will show you what is coming for this month of September 2017. For the scoffers and end time mockers, you needn't continue reading this article...save it for your toilet paper as it might come in handy.

To continue: Rev 12:1-4 AND there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: 2 AND she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. 3 AND there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. 4 AND his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

Many of these signs have played out in the constellations but never all of them at one time exactly as it is written, but here goes.

Coincidence? Continued

This Sept 23, 2017, Virgo will have the sun at her shoulder and the moon at her feet. Leo with nine stars are at her head, but wait for it...Mercury, Venus and Mars will also line up with Leo at her head making a crown of 12 stars. Then we have Jupiter known as the "king planet", with its stripes and spear marked side. Jupiter will be passing through the womb of Virgo where it will have been just over 9 months and overdue therefore the phrase: pained to be delivered.

By the way, as far as NASA can account, this total package neither occurs 7000 years prior nor will happen again in the next projected 1000 years.

Then we go to the next wonder: Rev 12:3-4 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, hav- ing seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. 4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

Draco constellation has 7 extrasolar planets and is known as the Red Dragon with a crown of seven stars, while in between the dragon (Draco) and Virgo is Bootes, which is ten stars aimed at Jupiter coming from the loins of Virgo. The Latin of Bootes is bovis or "cow" also interpreted as horn...ten of these horns.

So does this coincide with the appointed season of feasts? Feast of Trumpets begins Sept 20-22, according to the new moon. Rosh Hashanah or Jewish New Year is called the Feast of Trumpets in the Bible because it begins the Jewish High Holy Days and Ten Days of Repentance with the blowing of the ram's horn calling God's people together to repent. The Feast of Trumpets, also known as the feast of which no man knows the day or hour because it is set by the new moon, begins with Rosh Hashanah. The celebrations continue for ten days of repentance, culminating on Yom Kippur or the Day of Atonement. On this final day of the High Holy Days, Jewish tradition holds that God opens the Book of Life and studies the words, actions, and thoughts of every person whose name he has written there.

This year, 2017, marks the 50 year Jubilee, which last happened in 1967 with Israel becoming a nation again. In the Year of Jubilee, people are restored in all they had lost and restored to their alienated home. Slaves are emancipated...no longer slaves.

It is interesting also to note that from the Aug 21, 2017 total solar eclipse there is a seven year period when a repeat of the total solar eclipse will again pass over the United States in 2024. The convergent line of crossing seems to be Carbondale IL.

Interestingly also, is the convergence over this area directly over the New Madrid fault line.

I am not giving you a date for the "rapture" of the church; I am giving you something to watch and prepare your heart.

23 September 2017

"And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads."
Revelation 12:1-3

The Greek word for wonder (G4592) here can also be translated sign.
"...there appeared a great sign in heaven..."

Draco used to be called the Great Dragon, as one of its stars, Thuban, used to be the pole star around 3000 BC.

The constellation Draconis (The Dragon, or Serpent) is also called the red dragon because one of its stars (R Draconis) is a red Mira-type variable star - a pulsating variable star characterized by very red colors. It is a red giant star. The dragon is being described as red, which is not mentioned again - anywhere in scripture. These specific descriptions in these verses also show that this is a literal, physical celestial scene that sparks the discussion and symbolic references in the rest of the chapter Draco's head does have seven stars (seven heads) though commonly displayed as only four stars on most charts.

(Gamma Draconis - companion red dwarf star, Nu Draconis - binary v1 & v2 Draconis, Beta Draconis - Binary with dwarf star companion)

Bootes generally means herdsman, but gets its name from the Latin bovis, "cow". Also called Great Horn in Chinese astronomy. Ten horns.

Corona Borealis

Latin name literally means 'northern crown', and is made up of 7 stars. The 7 crowns above Draco's seven heads.

Faith Unfaithful Keeps Us Falsely True

There are many times in life that we must detach from a problem or a person's problem that compels us to focus a great deal of time and response.

Generally the response is in fear of what could happen, in which we create scenarios that do not even exist. Worry and even anger are other responses that chip away our purpose and God's plan for us taking us further away from faith.

Heb 10:35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward.

Confidence is firm trust and assurance in what you believe, therefore, you have to decide what it is that you believe. It is easy to say that we believe in the Word of God, however, you can admit to a belief and still believe something different.

I have heard many Christians who have a belief that they do not believe in. For instance, how many Christians hold to the belief that Jesus took stripes for their healing, yet do not believe they are healed? That is a prime example of casting away our confidence. We attach ourselves to the problem areas that grow with our focus and detach from our Scriptural belief to believe the worst or the oppo-

"Believers" have a tendency not to involve themselves with their own beliefs. We are oxymorons personified! Faith unfaithful keeps us falsely true. (Read it again.)

We are walking contradictions of our own faith and resent the world labeling us as hypocrites. I do not feel that we mean to live in hypocrisy, but there is a disconnect. Let's face it, we go after the reward part of Heb 10:35, but need to take more consideration of what not to cast away.

I am learning more every day how to detach from life's problems, in whatever form they come, by staying more connected in the Truths of God's Word.

Instead of telling our problems to God, it is time to tell our problems of our miraculous and powerful God who paid the price on a cross to take the burden of every malady known to man.

I will tell you the problem hasn't the staying power to back itself up unless you believe otherwise.

The Big BUTTTTT!

Have you experienced trying to encourage someone in the Word only to have the Word of God pushed aside for the Big BUTTTT?

"Buttt, you don't know what I've been through!"

"Buttt I don't think God is hearing me!"

"Buttt the doctor, lab test, MRI said..."

Isa 53:1 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

I do not know about you, butttt this Scripture tests me to look and see if my situation is greater than the Word of God or if I am the exception to unravel everything God said.

There was a man that the disciples had trouble convincing of his child's healing in which Christ replied: Mark 9:19 O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

When the man was taken to Jesus, he asked IF Jesus could do anything. Jesus' reply was neither yes, no or wait for it.

He put the ball right back into the Daddy's court: Mark 9:23 If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

The man replied, "I believe; help thou mine unbelief." Now the prayer is no longer for the illness but for the unbelief. The disciples were stumped at why they could not succeed in this situation. Jesus was not saying that one illness was more difficult than another. Unbelief was addressed all through this account. The disciples had success everywhere they went until this chink of someone who was not quite convinced they could really do what they offered.

Jesus saw that the skepticism blocking the healing was harder with which to deal than the symptoms of the disease. Unbelief always takes more prayer and fasting because as a man thinks in his heart, so is he. This also takes me back to an earlier article to say we must believe in our beliefs...otherwise how can we call ourselves believers? "Jesus, help thou mine unbelief."

Cob Webs

Contrary to popular belief, cob-webs only form when dust collects on wayward pieces of silk produced by spiders or other insects. The dust has time to collect on something that has not moved or changed, therefore the collection.

In prayer I saw as if many cob webs were in man's thinking as undisturbed thoughts that had accumulated to make patterns in our thinking.

Picture a thought like a spider weaving a web. At first it is just an invisible strand that traps other thoughts and sucks the life out of them. As dusty thoughts gather they evolve into visible patterns that can be seen in our actions. We do not know why we do or think in certain ways because the spider that weaved the web is long gone while the web not only survived the test of time but added to itself.

A simple story, that I cannot remember the origin, goes like this: A woman bought a ham, took it home, cut it in half and baked the first half and then the second half. She always baked her ham this way. Her offspring grew to the pattern of when you buy a ham you bake it in halves. They did not question why, it was just the way you baked a ham. Later they discovered that mom only baked it in halves because neither her oven nor pan was big enough for a whole ham to fit.

You may have a similar story in mind of something you thought a certain way that ended up being wrong and sometimes ridiculous in believing.

I believe that in this day and age we are so busy we never spend time with our thoughts enough to check them out. We hate cleaning out closets or garages so they remain cluttered of things useful only in gathering dust.

It is good to make time to sit and ask the Holy Spirit to show us the cob webs that need to be cleared.

Discerning Faith

Discernment is the quality of being able to grasp and comprehend what is obscure; keenness of insight and perception even in a visible world.

Spiritual discernment is recognizing something in an inner sight rather than a natural sight with the eyes. It sees what has no appearance, comprehends something that is not obvious and can distinguish between things of no substance.

While our natural life depends and uses our five senses daily, it is with our spirit that we have discernment. It is a communication of the Spirit of God awakening our spirit in an inner sightedness.

Mankind is most familiar with seeing what has an appearance, comprehending the obvious and distinguishing between things of substance. Our eyes, ears and natural senses have deceived us into thinking that they control what is and is not.

Helen Keller once said that she took comfort in the things of God in that the "things seen were temporal and the things unseen eternal". She was also quoted as saying, "I believe that God is in me as the sun is in the colour and fragrance of a flower - the Light in my darkness, the Voice in my silence." How did Helen find God? She had to feel after Him, see something of no appearance, understand something not obvious and distinguish between things of no substance.

Faith's discerning is the impairment of the world. What they do not see and hear they lack. They feel after nothing because their eyes and ears chart the map of what is. Without the use of discernment we have detracted strength and are only two thirds of our being. We are robbed of the inner voice and sight of the spirit within. Discerning is as invisible as the conscience, yet we are diminished and none the better for lack of their use.

How did Abraham find God without a Bible to guide him? Abraham discerned in faith to leave his home of Ur to go where he did not know. Noah discerned by faith that he was to build an ark for a flood that he could not comprehend. They died never having read what we may read today, yet they were able to feel after God and see what lacks appearance, understand what is not obvious and distinguish between things of no substance.

Faith and discernment are close traveling companions. How true are these words in Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Without this inner sightedness we see in hind sight. This is a day when discernment and faith are the most valuable in watching the signs and discerning what God is saying in order to prepare our hearts and minds in the direction of wisdom for the hour. Anyone can see what has happened after it hits. It is not only the prophet who forewarns but also faith and discernment for each who feel after it. Acts 17:27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us...

Not having discernment is the same as running backwards.

Just My Thoughts

One thing we have learned through the course of life's experiences is that God does not always answer the way we think...at least in most people's view.

I, however, see it differently. I think that we simply do not receive our answers in the way God thinks.

Isa 55:8-9 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Just because we have a baton does not make us skilled at directing an orchestra.

Then of course is the man or woman who have married and divorced multiple times and wonder why God has not sent them another spouse...or the person causing you the most trouble is not dying of the plague...the car you walked around seven times is not given to you as you neglect your child support etc. etc. What of those who say hateful things about the God they say they do not believe in because He has never done anything for them? Some things are a no brainer for most of us.

You have to bite your tongue from saying things like: James 4:7-8 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

The response would most likely be something like: "You can't judge me!" when in fact, this had nothing to do with your judgment...It was the Word of God.

Speaking of the Word; how many times has someone wanted a word from God, yet never open their Bible?

People can be very good at being God by critic, since they have formed Him in their own minds, while it would take more time than many want to give in actually getting to know God.

Yes, None of these examples are your examples, Dear Reader, because you know: Isa 55:11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

God understands what His Word says and tells us that His Word should not return back to Him void, which is to say empty or ineffectually, without cause or in vain.

What does it mean to return God's Word to Him void or empty? Void or empty of what? Here is a great example: Rom 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus,

How many of us rely upon this and send this back to God in our prayers or quote it to others going through their difficulties...yet, something is missing. If this Word is given in this form, it is empty. How, you may wonder? It is incomplete, for the rest of this Word is missing, which is: Rom 8:1 who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

If we are walking in the flesh, trouble will come in whatever form, and nice people will comfort your malady with the first part of that Scripture to hold onto, without the guidance of repentance from walking in the flesh. When we are walking after God's Spirit, we have no condemnation.

I was corrected by the Spirit recently from talking about someone in a derogatory way who had hurt my daughter repeatedly. I was not walking in the spirit when I rehearsed this in the ears of those around me. I also know that life and death are in the power of the tongue and my tongue was speaking death by its negativity. God's Spirit urged me to go to all those within earshot of my remarks and apologize for my words, which I did. Prov 17:10 He who covers over an offense promotes love, but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends. I could tell in hindsight that what I had said, hurt my own testimony to these I had vomited my criticism. I know that it is by our testimony as well as Jesus' blood that I overcome and defeat the enemy, so my testimony is valuable to my success in the Word of God's promises. It is one thing to write about God's Word and another to live in its values and purpose.

So, I come back to my first remark of believing that it is not so much that God does not answer the way we think, but that we do not receive His answers in the way He thinks. If we valued and tried to understand His thinking from all He has clued us into by His Word, we might see more clearly and straighten some of our crooked thoughts to match the answers we need.

These are just my thoughts.
