SEVENTH BIBLICAL MONTH...TISHRI 5776

This is a tremendous time of times when all things are culminating into changing events only read about, and we are characters in the story. Yes, these are exciting times to be alive on planet earth or scary all depending upon where you stand.

The Gregorian calendar has it as any other month of fall...September, but the Jewish calendar month of Tishri is very potent of events. Tishri would be on the Gregorian calendar as Sept 14-Oct 14.

The month of Tishri is the seventh month or month of completion when all things come together. The Jews understand this.

Translating the Jewish events to the Gregorian understanding:

Sept 13 Shmita ends (It began Sept 25, 2014) Economic climate change to be made aware

Sept 13 Rosh Hashana begins and ends the evening of the 14th. This is the New Year for the Jews and first of all high days of events. It also means judgment rendered.

Sept 15 Yom Teruah (Day of Trumpets) It is expected on the 15th depending upon the new moon, this is why it says that no man knows the day or hour (Matt 24:36). This is a day of shouting or 100 blasts of the shofar in warning. Jer 8:7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the LORD.

Sept 23 Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) A 25 hour period of fasting and intense prayer and repentance. This has to do with judgment sealed. It is also the 50th (49.9) year meaning that Yom Kippur falls upon the Year of Jubilee, which makes the 40th complete cycle since Christ's death. Jubilee will continue into the fall of 2016. This could be one last opportunity of time to circumcise your heart and cut away everything that distracts your faith from standing resolute.

So we see two amazing things taking place:

- Repentance
- Those in bondage are set free (through to fall 2016) This sparks of a mighty awakening...before the apostasy. (?)

Sept 28-29 to Oct 5-6 Rabbinic Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles) John 1:14 And the Word was made flesh, and tabernacled among us...

Many scholars believe Jesus was born during the Feast of Tabernacles. The Hebrew word "barn or stable" is called a sukkoth (Gen. 33:17).

In John 1:14, the word "dwelled" is literally "tabernacled" in the Greek – and this comes as the climax to John's "version" of the story of Christ's incarnation.

Feast of Tabernacles is a week-long fall festival commemorating the 40-year journey of the Israelites in the wilderness. The word Sukkot means "booths." They celebrate by leaving their home to live in a booth or sukkoth. Jesus left His heavenly home coming in an earthly sukkoth as well as being born in a stable or sukkoth.

(Last blood moon of the 8th tetrad is also on this Jewish feast.)

Jesus came to earth the first time during this feast. At some point His return may again climax the event.

Oct 7 HOSHANA RABBAH (The Last Great Day) Feast conclusion

The heavenly decrees made on Rosh Hashanah (and sealed on Yom Kippur) are sent out on Hoshana Rabbah, according to Jewish belief. The Kabbalah's main book also says that nations around the world are judged on this day.

So we have:

Rosh Hashanah-judgment rendered (Sept 14-15)

Yom Kippur-judgment sealed (Sept 23)

Hoshana Rabbah-judgment delivered (Oct 7)

Here is the trumpet sound for us all to consider the time we are in.

There is going to be a whole lot of shaking going on and at the same time a mighty out pouring of God's Spirit. It will truly be a time of Noah. Matt 24:37-39 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

There we find two kinds of people in Noah's day:

- Preparing, watching, listening
- Ignorant to the times

On the Jewish month of Tishri things are definitely heating up...Are not our hearts burning within us? Surely it is interesting enough to keep vigil.

God bless us all, everyone!

BAPTISM OF FIRE

We all know the story of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, but God's Spirit ask me a question about the story that I could not answer even going back reading it line for line. The question is this: How many Jews did perish in the fiery furnace of Nebuchadnezzar? We know that the fiery furnace was against all Jews who would not bow. We also know that the fire that usually burned its judgment was heated 7 times greater than usual for the amazing three. This tells us that there were other instances where people roasted at the normal temperature! We only know of three who were saved through the fire miraculously. We know, however, that they were the only three to come out alive and unharmed because Nebuchadnezzar did not sentence any others to the furnace for not bowing to his idol after that.

Now, I did not actually give this story to argue that point but to make another. There are fiery trials we all go through. The enemy thinks to destroy us by fiery trials, but God desires that through the experience we, like those three, will come out not only unharmed but purified for future trials. For the sake of these trials of our faith, God made a way to escape being burned up. It is called a baptism of fire.

Matt 3:11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance:

BLINDING RELIGION

Losing sight of LOVE is losing sight. The example of Paul being fueled by passion of religion, yet losing sight of LOVE, he lost sight.

Paul left the love of God to fight the fight of religion. Religion can never mind its own business, for then a man might be healed. Paul was fighting a fight that had nothing to do with him but was in fact the choice of others. Instead of Paul abounding in love's contagion, he went out with a strong arm of hatred to abolish other's but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

*Water baptism-repentance: to turn from sinful ways

*Holy Ghost baptism—power gifts

*Fire baptism-purification: purge in order to decontaminate

This is one baptism with three aspects to it. Many will go as far as the cross of repentance of sins and forgiveness, yet take for granted the Holy Spirit. Notice two qualifications in this Scripture: Rom 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation (1) to them which are in Christ Jesus, (2) WHO walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. Many Christians walk in the flesh. Look at the disciples on the road to Emmaus. They were not remembering the Word of God through the prophets or Jesus' Words as they rehearsed every negative thing while walking in the flesh. We have all done that. Jesus entered the walk unawares reminding them of the fulfillment of all that had transpired just as the Holy Spirit reminds us of the Word. Here was their response when their eyes were opened: Luke 24:32 Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

“wrong choices”. His tactic not only failed, the early church multiplied even greater by the LOVE of God's mighty witnesses. The early church was a fire that could not be quenched. LOVE spilled from heaven and people were caught up in its rain. Homosexuals and prostitutes were caught up in the love that changed them as no condemnation from religion could do. They found the Truth, that LOVE accepted them, not for how they lived but for Whose they were.

They were not walking the Word of faith down the path of despair and later wondered why their hearts had not been on fire instead.

Today's church is not walking in a full baptism but in one of constant repentance. Many never make it to the other side of the cross resurrecting into new life. Why do our hearts not burn with Jesus' Words when fiery trials come? If we expect to come out of the fiery furnace unharmed, we must purify through the experience. It is easy to fall into trials of our faith because we live in a fallen world with an enemy ever trying to beat us into submitted defeat. If we do not purify by the Word in the trial but continue the conversations of despair, defeat is a common experience to repeat many times over and up to our death. God does not set up these trials, but when they come He makes the way of escape and through the process refines you. It is not the refiner who contaminates the metal but the elements from which it comes. God only brings out the best of what we are intended to be (James 1:13-17; 1Co 10:13).

Mal 3:2-3 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: 3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of

Now let me step on your toes here. You cannot carry enough anti-abortion signs or give enough anti-gay speech to change the world by going after the choices of others, until you have a heart for Whose they are. When, and only when, you have a burning love for all of God's children, even those who do not yet know it, you cannot do anything to make a difference.

It does not matter how right you are, losing sight of love is losing sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

1 Peter 1:7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: James 1:12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

The baptism of the Holy Spirit is the power to get through the fiery trials. Jesus is no longer at the cross and neither should we linger there, but purify in the Spirit through the fire.

The Holy Spirit is not a tag-along when we accept Christ but further growth in the power gifts, wisdom and revelation of God beyond the cross, in which we must grow. This growth is our deliberate effort with the Holy Spirit's guidance and supernatural abilities along side us weathering the elements of life on this planet.

How about your heart? Is it on fire?

sight, and that, my friend, is the beginning of hatred. Jesus addressed this: Luke 6:39 Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

Our greatest battle is not abortion or homosexuality but LOVE, and who can find it today. Until we can win the battle over LOVE we will fail all others.

Assignment: 1 Corinthians 13 (all)

WHICH ADAM?

1 Cor 15:45-47 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. 46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

How have we chosen to live? Is it as a living soul or a quickening spirit? The "soul" in Greek is psuche and the comparative in Hebrew is made up of three words:

Nephesh: - appetite, beast, body, breath, creature, desire, [dis-] contented, greedy, heart (-y), lust, man, me, mind, mortality, one, own, person, pleasure, (her-, him-, my-, thy-) self, them (your) - selves, + slay, they, thing, (X she) will.

Chay: alive; life (or living thing), appetite, (wild) beast, company, congregation, life (-time), live (-ly), living (creature, thing), maintenance, + merry, multitude, + (be) old, quick, raw, running, springing, troop.

Rûach: wind; by resemblance breath, that is, a sensible or violent exhalation; figuratively life, anger, unsubstantiality; by extension a region of the sky; by resemblance spirit, but only of a rational being (including its expression and functions): - air, anger, blast, breath, X cool, courage, mind, X quarter, X side, spirit ([-ual]), tempest, X vain, ([whirl-]) wind (-y).

Though first Adam had a spirit, he did not live as a spiritual being but a being of flesh. Jesus was a quickening Spirit:

Pneuma: spirit of God possessing God DNA and mental disposition.

Though Adam had a spirit he was living in his soul nature, thus it says he was a living soul. Though Jesus had a soul He lived as a quickening spirit. One was coming from the point of view of the soul and the other from God's point of view.

Look how both responded to like situations:

God shared creation with Adam as He brought animals for him to name and call forth their character. This was Adam's reaction: Gen 2:20...but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him. Through the experience Adam's soul found himself in lack and wanting.

Jesus was with God throughout creation: Luke 4:18-19 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Jesus ask nothing to feed His soul, but to serve.

Both the living soul Adam and Jesus the quickening spirit gave birth to a bride...one from a rib and the other through a spear in His side as His life's blood and water gushed forth in His sacrifice.

Both had a garden experience. The living soul lived for the moment succumbing under temptation and said: "The woman whom YOU gave to be with me, SHE gave me of the tree, and I did eat." Soul's nature makes the excuse by pointing the fault of his actions to either God for making Eve or Eve for presenting the idea to him. The quickening spirit in His garden moment said: "Not my will by thine be done."

The end result of the living soul produced death, but the quickening spirit produced life everlasting. Look at both characteristics and see where you place yourself. Most of us have the battle of going back and forth all depending on the situation catching us, but God wants you and I to sit on the seat of authority in His Word. I guess I do not have to point out which is the better choice, right?

"KNOCK, KNOCK"

For those of you who do not know my testimony of how I started writing let me tell you. When I was very young I asked my mother how people talked to God. She told me to talk to Him the same way I was talking to her. I remember my very first prayer, outside of the memorized prayer of grace at meals and night verse, by starting with an ice breaker...a knock, knock joke. I thought God might appreciate the humor. It would be years later as an adult having learned so much in seeking God through Jesus' eyes that I felt like I would burst. So, I sat at my computer hoping the words would spill out and relieve me. "How do I begin, Lord?" "Where do I start?" I sat still for a while when, in my spirit, I heard "knock, knock!" "Who's there?" I asked. Then I realized what God's call on my life was about...to seek God's identity and uncover some hidden Truths of God.

Today the Lord once again reminded me of this in a picture and a Scripture: Rev 3:20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Sup is not just a meal but the meat portion: The word sup is the word deipneo to dine, that is, take the principal (or evening) meal: - sup (X -per).

Luke 12:37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. John 4:32 I have meat to eat that ye know not of. John 4:34 My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

Heb 5:13-14 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. 14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Jesus knocks at the door, but opening the door is only the beginning not the ending. He wants to serve you the meat portion for understanding the Will of God in your call to help finish the work of the Kingdom in which we each have our part.

Let me show you what He was impressing upon my heart for the church today. Holy Spirit gave me three people to consider as people in today's church...Paul, Peter and Cornelius.

Each of these three had a divine encounter or "knock, knock" on their spiritual door.

When Jesus said, “knock, knock” to Paul on the road to Damascus, Paul’s response was: Acts 9:5 “Who art thou, Lord?”

When Jesus said, “knock, knock” giving Peter a vision on the roof top, Peter’s response was: Acts 10:14 “Not so, Lord.”

When Jesus said “knock, knock” to the Roman soldier, Cornelius, his response was: Acts 10:4 “What is it, Lord?”

Paul was old school religion and well versed in the commandments and doctrines, yet did not recognize the God he professed to worship. Peter walked, ate and slept with Jesus and professed such love that his heart broke when Christ asked him thrice to feed his sheep.

Cornelius was not trained as a Jew, being Roman, nor had he walked with Jesus as Peter had done. Though he simply believed Jesus, he was anything but nominal, for his entire house was saved under him. When the “knock, knock” came to him, his response was: Acts 10:4 “What is it, Lord?” Three men of faith with three very different responses:

“Who art thou, Lord?”

“Not so, Lord!”

“What is it, Lord?”

Which are you? They thought they knew until a divine knock on their door of life.

There are those in the church today so full of head knowledge from their youth to adulthood, and like Paul, their minds are made up. Paul had to unlearn “his” religion to reconcile it to Truth. He had to change an old wineskin for new.

Then there are the Peter’s in the church that are so sure they know Jesus’ Voice, but when He does speak they argue that the Voice is not right with all that they know to be true. They have walked in the new but brought much of the old with them. Tradition, like religion is hard to reconcile when Truth knocks at the door.

Cornelius was a simple believer who had nothing to unlearn. He had not been raised as seed of Abraham, nor the advantage of the close, personal tutelage as Peter, yet he opened the door and allowed Jesus’ Words in to be for him meat. Cornelius knew in whom he believed and his response reflected that. His faith had no boundaries, since love was his base to keep him from falling to the left or right. There were no walls to keep God’s Spirit at bay.

Both Paul and Peter had boundaries that kept their vision limited. Paul’s vision had to be completely restored and Peter’s eyes were opened to exactly what Jesus meant by sheep.

If you sat Paul, Peter and Cornelius in the same room as they had been before their visitations, Paul and Peter would have come to blows as Cornelius would have shaken his head and left the room thinking that he wanted no part of this!

Fortunately for Cornelius, his experience with Jesus had not come from either a Paul or a Peter, but sadly there are those outside the faith that hunger for something real. They hunger for Truth and are led by well-meaning people to show them the rules and regulations of religion and tradition.

Let this be the knock, knock on the door of your heart, for the irony is this: All three of these men, as different as night and day, came to the unity of one Truth. This is the unity God is looking for today in the churches.

A NEW FRONTIER

Star Trek’s opening line at the beginning of the show “...to go boldly where no man has gone before...” Their new frontier was space travel to different planets.

There is a new frontier today, but not man’s efforts alone but by the power of the Holy Spirit. The portal is opening into new dimensions that man never imagined as possible. The Holy Spirit of God does not imagine with the mind of flesh but the limitless power of God through His Spirit to ours.

The exponential days of increased knowledge sealed from Daniel’s generation and many which followed was not only technology but amazing growth in opening greater dimensions of God. Increased knowledge is the new frontier. We remember that man could create whatsoever he could imagine in Genesis 11.

Revelation is the key to every invention coming alive to an end generation. God realizes that this will not all be used for good as we see in the event of Babel as He repents for what mankind has done with it. While there are those who will exploit the gifts of God, there will be those who come alive doing the mighty exploits in ways even Jesus foresaw would be greater than His works of those days John 14:12.

The reason Jesus had the ability to do the mighty works was His mind had no limits. He could speak it and think it and it was accomplished. He gave us the Word that we could have that same mind (Phil 2:5) just by believing, yet in end times knowledge would be increased and a new frontier of discovery available to understand God more clearly and mysteries of His Word, revelation of the universe, and unstoppable power gifts of God’s Spirit!

The portals are at their beginning stages.

Take for instance this term “déjà vu” which means: the feeling that you have already experienced something that is actually happening for the first time. Many of us have experienced this without understanding that God has shown us what we will be doing or where we will be. It looks familiar because God put it in our spirit before it happened. Jesus said it clearly: John

5:19 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do... Jesus had already seen Himself doing what he did. Jesus followed the map which was familiar to Him because He had seen it before it happened...not déjà vu as man defines it but as the Spirit leads! We need to begin to recognize what God is communicating to our spirit being.

How many times have you seen in your mind’s eye the face of someone you never think about, and then you either hear something about him/her or from him/her? God is making you aware either of a need and call to pray for someone or that one is being sent to you for a divine mission to witness or receive a confirmation etc. We miss these moments due to our lack of understanding.

Did you realize that when your body sleeps your spirit is still awake? Your spirit is being fed by the Holy Spirit of God: John 16:13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

Between soul and spirit, soul is the noisier of the two. This is why we do not always pay attention to the still small voice being overshadowed by the noise, however, that does not mean it is not speaking.

I make a practice of turning my sleep over to the Holy Spirit. I do not always know what I am being taught, yet I have received the answer to something cropping up in my life or the answer to counsel another shortly thereafter. Once, and only once so far, I was getting ready to speak at a conference. As usual I turned my sleep over to the Holy Spirit. I stirred slightly awake and heard the Spirit teaching me (even though it sounded like my own voice) what I would be ministering. I did not move a muscle for disturbing the Spirit at work, but listened and learned. I ministered later exactly as I had heard. It was a most amazing night, and one I will never forget.

ANOTHER KEY TO HEALING

James 5:16 The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

Do you see anything unusual about that Scripture? Read it again. Do you see it? No? Okay, then I will tell you that something is missing in verse 16. It is the part that we take out when we quote, the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Here is the entire Scripture: James 5:16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

We seem to remember the second part of this Scripture and hear it quoted often, but rarely if ever is the whole of it said. The first part of the Scripture is key to the rest of it.

The key to a righteous man is one who confesses his own faults and not everyone else's. That goes along with the Scripture about getting the beam out of your own eye first before taking out the speck in another's.

How many families are split because everyone seems to know only the faults of others. "Hey, they started it!" A match cannot burn what is not flammable. Think about that a moment.

Notice the words in Dan 12:4 "knowledge shall be increased." Knowledge portals will be opened. Our "knowing" shall be enlarged no longer contained to a small portion of the brain. We know these portions exist if we look at the amazing savants. An autistic savant is a person with autism who is not able to do the simplest of things like buttoning a shirt but is exceptionally gifted in a specialized field. That field may, for example, be mathematics. The autistic savant may be Someone struck the match, the match began to burn and everything around caught fire...and that was last Christmas at Aunt Bessie's! Ten years later we tell our children why we do not go to Aunt Bessie's anymore, and twenty years after Aunt Bessie passes the children, now grown, ask, "Aunt Bessie...who?" Aunt Bessie was a casualty of fire eliminating her from the family ties. The irony was that she was not in the room when the match went up. She got caught in the aftermath of falling ashes.

What was missing in that family was a hero...a champion fire fighter that knew how to quench the fiery darts of the enemy who was not their flesh and blood!

Today's statistics of divorces, family splits, dissolved relationships, and yes, church splits tell the story. We know, of course, that Satan passes out the matches freely.

White robes of righteousness are flame retardant. The key to the robe is righteousness and the key to righteousness is to discern our faults and confess them to one another prayerfully that we be healed.

As a fourth grade teacher, whenever there was a dispute between students, I would take them aside, and before I would let them tell able to do rapid, complex mental calculations. Or in the field of music, the autistic savant may be able to perform an entire piece of music after hearing it only once. When one portion of the mind is traumatized or scarred others may open up overcompensating this handicap. They tap into the side of the miraculous. Why? Because it is there, just waiting to be used. I believe those autistic savants have crossed to the other side of the unused paths me anything, I quoted all of James 5:16. I did not allow them to tell me anything the other had done. They could only tell me what they did. I did not even ask who or how the match got struck. I only wanted to hear their part of the flame. Example: Johnny called Chase a name. Chase yelled another name back. Johnny plowed into Chase and sent him sailing but not before Chase planted one good kick to the shin.

Confession after introducing James 5:16:

Johnny: "I called Chase a butt-head and pushed him."

Chase: "I called Johnny snot-face and kicked him."

I did not have to pronounce them both guilty since the guilt came straight from their mouths without excuses or finger pointing. Eliminating all the filler, we get to the meat of ownership. Once they heard their own confession, the fault was pretty clear and so was the apology from them both.

I have never seen James 5:16 fail in children. Adults are another matter, however. The headache, as a teacher, was when the parents took over the dispute. The children would get over it, but the parents kept the fires burning of the brain.

We only use about 10% of our brain. Our reasonable tithe is 10% of all that we have...correct? Then give that 10% to God by reconciling our thoughts with the Word of God and see what increased "knowing" you will have.

Our brain was tempered back due to the time when men could do all that they imagined and left God for intellectual adding fuel of their own. Oy Vey!

Do you realize that just by understanding and applying James 5:16 how the statistics mentioned earlier would be lowered.

Looking at the Scripture again. Here are the ingredients:

1 cup ownership of faults

2 cups praying for the other

Stir until well blended and CHILL

Once the humble pie is ready it is best served with the bread and wine of Christ's body. This recipe yields to all who are hungry for righteousness.

In counseling adults (who are willing), I have asked them to mentally rewind the situation and write down only what they did, said or their reactions. They had to leave out WHY they did, said or reacted and anything the other person or persons did, said or reacted. Just an itemized list of ownership. When reading it back we only see the beam in our eye and our part of the flame. Friends, this is Scriptural and wisdom if you can grasp it. Now, if your thought was, "Yeah, I just wish so-and-so could get it." NO, you be the champion. You be the firefighter, but fight the good fight of faith. Add the washing of the water by the Word of God to put out the fire.

building. The floodgates of knowing will again open and the greater works than these shall ye do.

We live in an exponential era of knowledge, yet God is going to enlarge our abilities to "know" if we will offer good ground by feeding and reacting from the Word of God. Start the baby steps of recognizing the still small voice over the noise and get ready for the New Frontier ahead!!!!!!
